GIVES ACCOUNT OF TRIP TO ENGLAND

Mrs. William Hillaby gave an informal account of her recent trip to England and Wales at the Oct. 23 meeting of the Women's Mission Circle, Christian Baptist church, Newmarket. Held in the Sunday school room, the meeting was well attended. Mrs. William Epworth presided.

Mrs. E. H. Adams brought gleanings from the Canadian Baptist paper. An appeal was made for good used clothing to be brought to the November meeting. These donations will be sent to the minister at Cochrane for distribution there.

Mrs. Hillaby had the pleasure of visiting a family in Cardiff, Wales, who has been the recipient of food parcels from the Mission Circle for several years. They were pleased to see her, both Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt, and wished to be remembered to all the Mission Circle ladies. Mrs. Wyatt was confined to hospital during Mrs. Hillaby's stay.

Mrs. Hillaby told of the great scarcity of many food items in Britain. She outlined the drastic cuts in food rations which all must share.

By means of pictures, the group was taken to the many places of interest visited by Mrs. Hillaby, a few of the more historic ones included Trafalgar Square and its famous art gallery, Buckingham Palace, the Tower of London where she was able to view the Crown jewels, Canada House and Westminster Abbey, the scene of many Royal ceremonies.

Most unique historic place visited was Dickens' Old Curiosity Shop, still in its original state. She visited the London Zoo, containing an unusual collection of birds and animals and Edinburgh Castle. Mrs. Hillaby was impressed with the wonderful flower gardens, small parks and lovely green hedges everywhere.

The November meeting will be held one week earlier than usual.

Children in Newmarket are getting their costumes ready for tomorrow night, Hallowe'en, when they will be going from house to house asking for a "shell-out". Gordon Surgeoner, three and a half or so, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Surgeoner, Park Ave., was prepared early for Hallowe'en. In plug hat among the autumn leaves, he is planning on an original face for his pumpkin.

FIRST CONCERT TUESDAY

The first concert of the 1952-53 season of the Canadian Concert Association will be presented in the Newmarket high school auditorium on Tuesday, Nov. 4, 8.30 p. m. Observation Post At Newmarket To Be Part Of Air Defence Scheme

Newmarket will be an air defence post in the newly formed air defence scheme which will include civilian volunteers all over the country.

The name for the civilian volunteer group is the Ground Observers' Corps and it will supplement radar coverage of the country with eyewitness reports of aircraft seen or heard.

A chief observer will be appointed within the next week by Mayor Vale and when the system is organized there will be a number of observers appointed in town.

Official observers will normally serve in the observation post in their own neighborhood. Filter centre volunteers will be utilized in the filter centre, several of which are strategically located across Canada.

Barrie will be the filter centre or plotting centre for the district in which Newmarket is located. As soon as the filter centre becomes operational, training classes for both observers in the immediate district and filter centre volunteers will start.

The R.C.A.F. has set up a priority for "aircraft flash" calls going into the filter centre at Barrie. In a matter of seconds or minutes, a volunteer plotter at the filter centre in Barrie will receive the report and display the appropriate symbol on the exact geopraphical location of the point or origin on a huge plotting room table.

Subsequent action and communications will enable defending fighter aircraft to engage a possible bombing force, before it reaches vital target areas.

Acting chief observers have already been appointed in some districts around Newmarket. They are G. Wilkinson, Aurora; E. Davis, Mount Albert; W. M. Sellars, Sutton; Irwin Winch, Keswick; R. Sedore, Brown Hill; J. N. Umphrey, Udora; J. Dew, King; and J. L. Smith, Sharon.

Commercial Students Visit Firm, See Radio And T.V. In Action

Commercial students of Grades 11 and 12, accompanied by commercial teachers, Mr. Dickand Mr. Garrett, of Newmarket high school, visited the International Business Machines plant on Don Mills Road and the radio and television studios of the C.B.C. Wednesday, last week.

At the first building, that of the International Business Machines Co., they were divided into groups and taken on a conducted tour throughout the plant and offices. A well-informed guide accompanied each group.

The students were particularly impressed by the happy, contented atmosphere prevalent throughout the building, resulting from the smoothly-running office routine which has been adopted by the company. An interesting feature was their motto, "Think", prominently placed throughout the building. A complimentary dinner ended the visit at the International Business Machine plant.

The students continued on to see the Happy Gang radio broadcast where they received a pleasant surprise by having the master of ceremonies, Hugh Bartlett, welcome them over the air.

A conducted tour of the C.B.C. radio and television studios was of interest to everyone. The students were surprised to learn that for a radio program of one hour in length, it takes 13 hours of rehearsal a week and for a television program of the same length, it takes from 15 to 16 weeks preparation. They saw a few well-known broadcasters and entertainers, Al Maitland, Cal Jackson, John Pratt and Byng Whittaker.

At the Odeon Toronto theatre, the students viewed an unusual type of movie in which there was no talking. It provided a finale to an enjoyable day.

Observe U.N. Anniversary, Director Speaks At Service

Michael Hind-Smith, director of the Toronto branch of the United Nations association spoke at the Sunday evening chapel service at Pickering College on the United Nations, An Active Faith.

In his address, Mr. Hind-Smith said it would cost each person in all the 60 member nations of the United Nations, 10 cents a year to finance the world organization if costs were spread out. The U.N. costs $48,000,000, one third of the total amount New York City spends on garbage disposal.

In Canada, 28 cents per person is spent on the United Nations while $287 per person is spent on NATO, according to Mr. Hind-Smith.

He spoke of the unpublicized work of the U.N. in keeping peace. Only 150 men, in white helmets patrol the 700 miles of borders between India and Pakistan, keeping the peace. While news of border disturbance was spread through newspapers, there was little known about these U.N. workers, he said.

The newspapers were almost predicting a war between Greece and Bulgaria over a tiny island 150 yards by 30 yards recently. An agreement between the two countries, had established that their territories be divided by a river. With the spring floods, the river's course changed and the feud started. The U.N. was working to ease strained relations over this ridiculous situation.

The chief enemies of the U.N. are fear and ignorance, the speaker said. The fear among countries is that their national interests will be submerged in the 60 national interests in the U.N. "Fear springs from ignorance and it can only be conquered by attacking ignorance about the U.N." he said.

The weekend activities and chapel service at the college were an observance of the United Nations organization's seventh anniversary last week. It was seven years ago October 24 that the U.N. was founded.

A number of European students who are being sponsored by world-wide church organizations at the University of Toronto, visited the college and toured the Newmarket district on the weekend.

The students, from the Netherlands, Jugoslavia and other countries visit different parts of the province on weekends, through the assistance of a university organization devoted to enlightening foreign students about Canada.

Pages from the Editor's Notebook

Educators and sports enthusiasts have expressed considerable resentment over a sports column published in the Aurora Banner last week. The reporter, Gerry Barker, wrote at considerable length to criticize C. R. Blackstock, director of physical education at Pickering College, who refereed a football game at the college athletic field Tuesday last week, between Aurora high school and Newmarket high school.

The writer, who lacks maturity, descended to what we would call a very low level to jeer at an outstanding figure in the field of physical education. He went so far as to say that Mr. Blackstock's refereeing lost the game for the Aurora players.

Mr. Blackstock needs no defence and we do not mention this because the Banner story will affect his reputation. What we are concerned about is the effect it has had on the minds of students in our schools.

Mr. Blackstock has had 25 years of experience in the field of education. He is known across Canada as an outstanding man in his field. He is particularly well known for his integrity.

A young upstart, yet in his early twenties, with not much more than a year's newspaper experience and little experience in the sports field as compared to his target, has been allowed to charge in the public prints that the Aurora players were "robbed" by Mr. Blackstock's refereeing.

It is disappointing that a newspaper should allow such poor example to be placed before the public, particularly before adolescents in our schools.

Mr. Blackstock's career is devoted to teaching adolescents the right approach to athletics. Good physical educators teach adolescents that they should accept, with good grace, the decisions of adults, once they are appointed as referees or other field officials. That a person who has been given a responsible job on a newspaper should preach the opposite is indeed a disgrace.

Blaming a referee for a team's failure to win is a sin and we have often heard students reproached by their educators in such instances. But when a reporter does the same thing in the press, how can these educators hope to combat it on the playing field?

A new union is being formed in Newmarket. The union of managing editors, local 142 Main St. was organized this week with the sole purpose of seeking better working hours.

So far membership has been discouragingly low.

The editorial on this page which is favorable toward better hours for civil servants reminded us that weekly editors are in a group of the least protected workers of today.

It is interesting to note that curious or demented individuals sometimes comment on the fact that the newspaper is published on Thursdays and then ask, "What do you do on the other days?" We never have the strength to answer them.

Our "local" is at present gunning for a 55-hour week but results from our efforts have been poor so far.

From the Files of 25 and 50 Years Ago

A pleasant time was spent at the home of Mrs. C. A. Dyke, Aurora, when about 20 of her family and friends gathered to celebrate her 86th birthday on Saturday. On account of her recent illness the celebration had to be postponed a week. Her two daughters, Mrs. Archibald of King, and Mrrs. Brown of Newmarket, accompanied by their husbands, her son, Mr. C. R. Dyke, Mrs. Dyke and family of Unionville, Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Henry, granddaughters, her niece from Toronto, Miss Cook and Mr. Somerville were among those present.

Yesterday Mr. Fleming Young brought to the office a most beautiful garnet rose from an out-door bush that has also buds waiting to develop. With fruits and flowers in November what more does one want?

During his stay in town over the weekend, Rev. T. W. Neal was the guest of Hon. E. J. Davis, and many of his former parishioners embraced the opportunity of shaking hands at the close of the church service last Sunday morning.

Newmarket citizens are delighted to hear that a part of the plant belonging to the Estate of the William Cane and Sons Co. Ltd. is shortly to be reopened.

Miss Hope Morgan gave an "au revoir" tea at her studio on Lowther Ave. for her pupils. Miss Morgan and her sister, Fawnie Morgan, both Newmarket girls and daughters of the late Judge Morgan, leave this week to spend the winter in Bermuda.

At the annual fowl supper of Trafalgar United church, attended by over 300 people, the Flumerfelt family of Bronte, formerly of Newmarket, put on an excellent program with two or three other artists, so a press report reads.

Last Saturday Mr. Daniel Snider, a carpenter at Cane's Factory fell off the roof of a building where he was working, a distance of about 15 feet to the ground. No bones were broken, but he complained of his neck being stiff after the accident.

The new plan of King City is now registered in Newmarket and the description in all future conveyances must conform to this plan which is No. 85.

The plan of Schomberg will now receive attention in the Registry Office.

The second of the Public Library Board entertainments is to take place in the Town Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 7, and will comprise 100 Lime Light Views, describing the wonders of pre-historic ages as revealed by science, exhibited by Mr. Gilbert A. Smith, B.A., of Toronto.

The brick work on Mr. Bacon's new house was started this week. The former residence has been nearly all torn down.

First snow-storm of the season on Tuesday evening. Just enough to make the ground white.

Mr. John McBride's house on Eagle street is getting a new roof.

Mr. W. Eves shipped another car of hogs to Collingwood on Monday.

Messrs. Lawrence Cane, Ed. Armitage, Geo. Shuttleworth, Thos. Travisa and one or two others leave tomorrow for Parry Sound District on their deer hunt.

Mr. Geo. Wiley of Redvers, N.W.T., writes that the Era is looked for every week like a letter. Queensville items are the first thing looked for, as a letter from home, and then comes Baldwin Breezes.

TOWER OF BABBLE

CIVIL SERVANTS' FIVE-DAY WEEK

Civil servants want a five-day week and members of the Civil Service Federation in the Newmarket district have expressed a feeling that they deserve the same treatment as applies to workers in private industry.

Representatives of the Staff Side of the National Joint Council for the federation held an interview with the Minister of Finance, Mr. Douglas Abbott, last May, Mr. Abbott at that time emphasized the importance of public opinion as to the desirability of the five-day week for civil servants.

Some areas, Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa, already have the five-day week. According to Mr. Abbott, his officers have been preparing data on the five-day week so that the question could be raised with the cabinet this fall. It would appear that it is only a matter of time before the five-day week will be implemented throughout Canada.

The first question which comes to mind concerns the increased cost to the country. The workers themselves say the establishment of the five-day week will probably result in small increases in operating expenses for a few sections of the government, particularly where continuous operation is involved. Post offices and customs offices are examples of departments where it is not practicable to have year-round five-day week without more staff or costing more money.

The five-day week the year round, however, is advantageous to both employer and employee, representatives of the Staff Side of the National Joint Council say. The objective can be reached in many departments without increasing staffs; statistics show that the five-day week is predominent in three quarters of all the large industries; numerous benefits in a longer weekend will undoubtedly result in greater individual efficiency during the condensed working week, they say.

A number of departments have adopted the scheme already and another number of departments have had it for ten weeks during the summer. The civil servants' association believes that the elimination of the relatively inefficient half day on Saturday will mean greater productivity.

The case for the civil servants, which they have put forth themselves, seems reasonable. If the cost of the scheme is as small as has been stated, it would appear that the five-day week should be implemented, giving the civil servants the same advantages as there are in working for private industry.

"AN ACTIVE FAITH"

There is a group of thinkers in Paris known as existentialists. Their philosophy is one of despair. They believe that life is "hell" and that only a few pleasurable experiences make it bearable at times. It is assumed that an existentialist accepts the basis of life as being one of hopelessness and then seeks what relief there is in as many pleasurable instances as possible. This thinking is said to be a result of the long years of war in Europe and the economic condition of France in the post war period.

The post war years, the production of the atomic bomb, the cold war and the extremities of political ideologies in the world provoke despair in the minds of individuals everywhere. How often have we heard friends say something like this: "Where is it all going to end? I don't see any hope for the world" or "We can't avoid a third war." We hear such voices often, from individuals in periods of low morale. They sound as though their thinking level has dropped to that of the existentialists.

We hear talk of the dangers of a nation becoming a "welfare state" that the world helplessly grows towards socialism and we hear talk of a haunting fear that we will never get back to the "good old days". We hear talk about the world population increasing so rapidly that we will have to fight the Asiatics or eventually be wiped from the face of the earth.

It is refreshing now to hear the persons who have faith in the world. Mr. Michael Hind-Smith, a young United Nations worker, director of the Toronto branch of the United Nations Association spoke at the Pickering College chapel service last Sunday night on the United Nations. He called the United Nations "An Active Faith".

We have a choice of accepting either of two directions of thinking; we may put our confidence in the belief that the world is doomed to a future of war and strife or we may put our faith in this world organization. The preamble to the charter of the United Nations speaks of faith:

To save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and

To reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small, and

To establish conditions under which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law can be maintained, and

To promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom, and for these ends,

To practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors, and

To unite our strength to maintain international peace and security, and

To ensure by the acceptance of principles and the institution of methods, that armed force shall not be used, save in the common interest, and

To employ international machinery for the promotion of the economic and social advancement of all peoples.

A young student spoke of "getting nowhere talking with the Russians" in the U.N. and Mr. Hind-Smith's answer was "the important thing is that we are still talking". The 60 member nations have been talking long, for seven years. The U.N. marked its seventh anniversary on October 24; the talking has not diminished and the "active faith" has not lost its power.

CRITICISM

The world is passing through troubled times. The young people of today think of nothing but themselves. They have no reverence for parents or old people. They are all impatient of all restraint. They talk as if they alone knew anything and what passes for wisdom with us is foolishness with them. As for girls, they are forward, immodest and unwomanly in speech, behavior and dress.

REGULATIONS AND TALENT

The Sun, Swift Current, Sask.

We are not entirely in accord with the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's attempt to force private stations to increase its use of Canadian talent, to a certain percentage. This legislation would go into effect if the CBC Board of Governors passes on the idea. Now, we are not against encouraging Canadian artists; as a matter of fact we are very much for it, but that is something which must preserve on its own. We would feel very much like the private broadcasting stations if the government tried to force newspapers to write editorials on Canadian topics up to say, 50% content of the editorial space. Regulation of this sort, if persisted in leads from one regulation to another and unless we want to retain our Canadian way of life that spirit of private enterprise and freedom to plan and conduct business as the spirit moves (within reason), then such moves as proposed by the CBC should not be condoned, nor should it pass without Parliament having something to say about it.

And it seems to us that Canadian talent if it is good will be recognized. If the private stations are forced to accept a larger quota of Canadian content programs, it could be within the bounds of reason that we could be in for a great run of ordinary stuff, merely because they are Canadian. Does the CBC forget that listeners can turn a small knob and do wonders with it? Mediocre programs will get the kind of reception from the listening public they always get. A turn of the knob.

There must be some better way of giving Canadian talent a break without regimenting private industry, and that's what radio stations are.

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Office Cat Reports Catnips By Ginger

Slim Bliggens received a yellow ticket yesterday on the cracked windshield of his old sedan which he fondly refers to as the "stoneboat".

Having failed to borrow a dollar to pay the fine, Slim went to the police office to plead his case, without success.

"You see, it was this way," Slim pleaded on bended knee before a stalwart gendarme with face of stone. "I parked me bus alongside this here parking meter, got out and reached into my pocket for a penny. I dropped it on the sidewalk and it rolled under the vehackle, right under the middle of it.

"While under the car, I backed into the red hot muffler pipe and was so startled by pain that I hurled myself into an entanglement up among one of the rear sets of springs.

"While attempting to extricate myself therefrom this here ridiculous position, your worshipful self came along and put a ticket on my car. The escaping fumes from the exhaust pipe, therefrom, was so instense and chokin' that I was unable to cry out and offer a verbal plea in my own defence.

"So you see officer, my plea bears some justification. If the evidence overhwhelms the defence, please send me a bill," said Slim.

So it was that Bliggens spent the night in the local sin bin.

Slim submitted a 25 page paper on something about the Letter of the Law this week and it was refused by the new editor.

"An injustice has been done," I heard Slim cry out in the editorial room.

"But do you think it warrants a 25 word blue paper report?" said the boss. "After all, there is no public issue involved and the fact that you spent a night in the hooskow isn't even worth a news item."

"Where's the freedom of the press?" cried Bliggens. "There has been an injustice done and here you're supposed to be a fearless editor. Wall, jest for that, I'll take it up to Cuttin Corners and get it published.

"I'll take it to William Rudolph Cursed Jr., the publishing typhoon of East Thimbleberry township, I will," Slim said.

Cursed Jr. also refused Bliggens' blue paper and so it came to pass that Slim took his report to the editors of Flush, tabloid news weekly printed in the city. The editors of Flush and the editors of Blush are the ones who join forces and present the Mush of Time in the news reels.

Bliggens' blue paper was printed all right. It even hit the Gorgin' Bay Briefs, a scandalous column in Flush. In Gorgin' Bay Briefs, it was stated this week that a certain police department in a certain town on Fairy Lake is reported to have been intimidating a certain natural born primitive artist who lives by a railway track, that the department allowed an unconvicted citizen to languish in jail a whole night, awaiting morning.

Three-inch headlines roared the charge that human rights have been violated.

"I didn't have a hung jury even," complained Bliggens.

"No?" I said.

"No," said Slim.

"What did you have, then?"

"I don't know," said Slim.

I don't know what's got into Bliggens lately. He isn't himself. If he doesn't watch out, he's going to get into trouble.

Kusterd the linotypist and Billiam the printer found an old plug hat in the office the other day and they started doing a Ted Lewis number in the composing room just before five o'clock.

We are thinking of putting them in the Thimbleberry Follies this year as an advertising stunt. They may even go on to the Follies Bergerie.

Billiam the printer is currently keeping goal with a local weed league. Kusterd the printer is also getting in condition for a press-police fiasco

The Top Six Inches by "Dairy Farmer"

From time to time we have been arguing the case for more advertising and more publicity for dairy products. At times we felt that the case was pretty hopeless and sometimes we dispaired and thought that after all we might be wrong and the thing to do is to go on the way we always have. However, a couple of things came to our attention lately and we are happy to tell that both of them are good, constructive steps in the right direction.

One is a press bulletin, from the Dairy Farmers of Canada, extolling the virtues of cheese and telling the public the value of the Canadian cheddar cheese. It is well written and it is the kind of information that housewives and other people interested in nutrition will pay attention to. For example, it tells us that one pound of round steak has 80 grams of protein in it while one pound of Canadian cheddar has 110 grams of protein. It quotes Dr. McHenry, one of our best nutritional experts in saying that the Canadian consumption of cheese should be doubled, since it is only one and three-fifths of an ounce per week.

Another bulletin tells us a bit about different types of cheese and points out their origin and their use.

Now this is the type of information that will increase the consumption of dairy products, if it gets into the right hands. The Dairy Farmers of Canada are undoubtedly aware that merely distributing this information will not assure that it will be printed and talked about. But let us give them time and it will seep through the way it should.

The other hopeful sign is that the Royal Winter Fair is going to have a Dairy Lane where dairy products will be displayed and sold. Next year they are planning a small manufacturing plant as well. This year there will be a milking parlor set up and in operation.

Now this one is really hitting it right. We believe that nothing has so much interest for the consumer as showing something being done. One can write and talk and argue but the factor that will get them interested and keep them interested and keep them talking is to show them something happening before their eyes.

The Winter Fair, by making room for such a display, shows true leadership, the kind of imagination and interest that one would expect. The Winter Fair has been often criticised for many things. It has been said that the horses are getting too much attention. It has been pointed out that the King's Guinea competition has lost its educational value. Well, for our money, the R.W.F. is still the greatest agricultural show.

The men at the head of it do a terrific job and do it well. Anyone who saw the King's Guineas steers judged last year, saw the best show, a stirring spectacle of young people showing their year's work.

Neither is the criticism of the horse show entirely justified. It is one of the major horse shows on the continent in an agricultural setting. It benefits from being connected with the largest grain and livestock show and makes it part of the country's agricultural effort. It also pays bills.

By adding the Dairy Lane feature to this year's fair, they have taken a step in the right direction, a step from which we will benefit.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

LAND OF MAKE-BELIEVE

When I was a small child, the line that divided reality from make believe was so faintly etched as to be practically invisible. My friends out of books were more real to me than my playmates and unless those playmates could further my adventures into the magic land I loved, they sort of faded out of the picture.

The gate into a field with a little hill and a stream was the wicket gate through which I went with Christian, toward the Holy City. With a like-minded boy cousin, we staged the tournament from Ivanhoe, after having denuded poor mother's pantry of sauce pan lids and other utensils; with bow and arrows we enacted Robin Hood and if at night we aroused our households with battle cries and nightmarish roamings, what of it, we had had our fun.

After these many years I still love the make believe of the theatre and when we settled ourselves on the town hall's chairs, to make the acquaintance of the Felon's Daughter, I had just as many thrills as when I used to see the fearful melodramas of the Marks Brothers in the gay nineties. The first thing Archie and I thought of was how much the players had improved, improved in stage deportment, in enunciation and in acting.

Their director, Joe Dales, seems to have a flair for making a melodrama exactly what it should be, a play where there is just enough edge put on reality to make it funny, the good so good and the bad so bad. Gilbert and Sullivan made "the punishment fit the crime". Joe Dales made the actors fit their parts, first in his choice of actors and then enabling them, once chosen, to put on their borrowed personalities and wear them proudly.

Kay Kudelka as Betsy Fairweather gave us a fine picture of a mother who could see no flaw in her son, who shut her eyes to weakness and almost made herself and others believe it was not there.

Audrey Halme, as Lily, her adopted daughter, did an excellent job as the demure maiden of the 90's who, where occasion arose, could rise too, and along with the purity and virgin innocence, gave voice to a final scathing denunciation of the wrong doers.

Laurna Styke, as the unusual French maid, was, as in other plays, able to give a convincing performance. Grace Sinclair, as Miss Ophelia, was one of the highlights of the evening. Every word was distinct and she has a way of making you forget it is all make believe and of taking you with her in all situations, ridiculous or not.

George McNelly, as Lord Monty, certainly found an outlet for his acting ability. Anything funnier than his trials with his roses, especially his uneasy setting, would be hard to find and his triumphant entry at the last was a gem.

Frank Turner as Craven Sinclair brought a new face before the footlights and it is to be hoped he is featured often in the future. Like Joe Dales, in a former melodrama, he could give us the real version of a Victorian villain, black as the deepest dye. We sometimes confuse modern villains and heroes but he was all bad.

John Quincey as Compton Fairweather had a difficult and not particularly attractive part to play. We feel he has not yet learned to throw aside the shackles of modesty on the stage. We predict that in his next play, he will certainly find himself.

Don Cummings, playing the part of Jonas Fairweather, was good. Here is another actor who is finding himself and certainly as the selfless father, he gave a convincing piece of acting. Once or twice we lost words but that was true of several because it takes a few moments for the voices to adjust themselves.

Fred Henney, playing Robin Steel, looked like a Shakespearean character and brought back memories of others whom we had seen. We felt he was a worthy successor. Dorothy Bowman as Mrs. Kingsley was, as always, adequate and satisfying and Evelyn Denne as Mrs. Bloodgood made us glad that we were not dependent on a landlady like her. It was a realistic performance.

I am sure that the Optimists and the Dramatic club must be pleased with the response of the audience. One could sense the enjoyment and there was certainly a quick recognition given to any fine bit of acting. It was fun!

And we mustn't forget Jack Struthers' bit of entertaining. A filling of any kind adds flavor; this did.

Our readers write

Letters to the editor are always welcome but the names of the writers must be known to the editor.

The Editor: I was pleased no end with that guest editorial on immigration in your current issue, "Excluding Too Many?" (The Financial Post), and especially with that constructive opening paragraph: "If Canada is to reach the modest total of 40 millions population by the end of the century, as has been predicted by Prime Minister St. Laurent, then our immigration doors will have to be opened wider than they are at present.

"The experts do not agree on the exact volume of immigration needed for such a goal, but they are unanimous that the minimum annual flow must be over 200,000."

The above almost synchronized with an item (by Forbes Rhude, CP Business Editor), dealing with this same problem and quoting Rene B. Perrault, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce as saying to 600 delegates attending the annual meeting: "With a wealth of virtually every vital resource, Canada is short of the most important resource, people. The answer is immigration, more immigrants, many more. We should be aware of the danger of trying to keep so rich a land all to ourselves. Our moral sense urges us to provide sanctuary and opportunity."

This latter seems to this reader to symbolize an important decision (realistically in alignment with today's needs and tomorrow's) and seems to put the powerful prestige of the nation's business leadership behind Canada's aim of a more appropriate population in this wide and favored but dangerously empty land.

It is good to learn that experts, for once, are describable as "unanimous" as to the minimum annual inflow. This is decidedly encouraging. On the other hand it is to be hoped that Canadians will, so to speak, keep both eyes open concerning this vital traffic, remembering the sobering fact that immigration-emigration is a two-way movement.

Only a few months back I was shocked to learn from my Farm Forum Guide that, while 6,600,000 immigrants entered Canadian ports during the past century, no less than 6,200,000 emigrants moved in the opposite direction.

Frankly, I would not have credited this outbound movement from any less authoritative source but "facts are stubborn things" (Smollett).

With due respect to the experts, I suggest that if we can reduce the depth and tempo of that outbound stream, we will be on our way.

"Immigrant ('09)."

3 Important Public Roles?
(Millions do!)

Millions of Canadians help to improve their communities by owning life insurance. For a large part of their premium payments is invested for them in ways that provide many new roads, power plants, waterworks, stores, homes and other useful developments.

Several medical research projects likewise depend in part on life insurance policyholders. It is a portion of their money which life insurance companies contribute to research on child health, heart diseases, polio, the processes of aging and other vital studies.

The man who owns adequate life insurance does his fellow-citizens a service by providing financial independence for his family. For, if anything happens to him, his family will not be a burden on others.

In these and other ways, millions of life insurance policyholders are building security for the future — helping to make Canada a better land to live in!

Farm Forum Season Opens In Ontario On November 3

"An all time high", said Clifford Waite, provincial secretary for the Ontario Farm Radio Forum about this year's interest in Farm Forum activity. The season gets under way November 3 with the national broadcast topic "Farming as a Career" in which the advantages and disadvantages of farming as a career will be discussed.

Mr. Waite has just returned from a series of workshops for Farm Forum chairmen and secretaries held in the counties of Peterborough, Hastings, Lennox and Addington, Lanark, Elgin and Norfolk. He was accompanied by Floyd Griesbach, National Secretary of Farm Radio Forum and Mr. W. R. Simmins a UNESCO fellow who is making a detailed study of the success and failures of Farm Forums particularly in Halton County.

"Our visits to these counties brought to light that farmers are concerned over low prices. This year's topics, chosen by the farmers themselves, will bring more farmers together than ever before in form discussion groups to talk over their mutual problems," Mr. Waite stated.

There are 793 active Farm Forums in Ontario; this year it is expected that the 1000 mark will be reached.

The Temperanceville branch of the W. I. met in the Sunday school room of Temperanceville church on Wednesday, Oct. 22, "How I made my head save my heels" brought forth many worthwhile suggestions in answer to the roll call. Resolutions to be voted on at the convention were given consideration.

Mrs. T. Dann, directeor of education for the Aurora and district branch of the Canadian Cancer Society, guest speaker of the afternoon, was introduced by Mrs. Burton Palmer. Mrs. A. Miller of the Aurora district high school staff, by showing a film, said that valuable time is often wasted when a serious problem must be faced.

Mrs. M. E. McClure provided lovely bouquets of flowers and afternoon tea while the lunch committee, Mrs. Everett Phillips, Mrs. Roy Bowen and Mrs. James Gilham served lunch.

The W.I. held its annual family night at Temperanceville school house which was filled to capacity on Friday, Oct. 24. Music opend the program, followed by "The Railway Skit" in which Mrs. Don Chalk, Mrs. F. Bell, Mrs. Fred Boys, Miss Donna Jennings and Miss Joan Hare took part. Miss Ruth Beynon favored the audience with a piano medley. A newspaper, "The Town Gossip", was read by Mrs. Don Chalk.

Those taking part in the two-act play, "Wanted, A Housekeeper", were Mrs. Fred Hare, Mrs. Nelson Thompson, Mrs. Wilbert Jennings, Mrs. Charles Henshaw Jr. and Miss Donna Jennings, Mrs. Carl Stephenson, Mrs. Clayton Beynon and Mrs. Wm. HUNT—COWIESON

Beautifully decorated with standards of bronze and gold chrysanthemums, Keswick United church was the setting on October 4, 1952, when Evelyn June, daughter of Mr. R. A. Cowieson and Mrs. Cowieson, Keswick, became the bride of Gordon Charles Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hunt, Newmarket.

Rev. George Campbell officiated and Mrs. Ted Marritt was soloist, singing "The Wedding Prayer" and during the reception "Where e'er you Walk".

The bride looked charming in a strapless gown of white taffeta and a jacket of Chantilly lace with a folded neckline and dolman style wrist-length sleeves. The skirt ended in a short train. For travelling to Florida and to other points in the United States, the bride chose a teal blue suit over which she wore a full-length blush pink top coat with a corsage of white gardenias. On returning the bride and groom will reside in Toronto.

HALL—KERFOOT

Jessie May Kerfoot, daughter of Mr. Thomas Kerfoot, Kingston, and the late Mrs. Kerfoot, became the bride of Murray Allan Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hall, and grandson of Mrs. W. D. Hall, Stouffville, and the late Mr. Hall, in Runnymede Baptist church, Toronto, on Saturday, Sept. 27. Rev. Gordon Brown officiated amidst a colorful setting of mixed gladioli after the soloist, Mrs. M. Black, had sung the Lord's Prayer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length gown of white net with a lace basque and a lace over-jacket with stand-up collar and long pointed sleeves. A headpiece of pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Her attendants, Mrs. J. Race, matron of honor for her sister, and Miss Nancy Dearden, bridesmaid for her cousin, wore similar gowns of net over taffeta with lace jackets and matching caps in coral and smoke blue. They carried bouquets of yellow and bronze 'mums.

Mr. William Hall, Jr., was groomsman for his brother and the ushers were Messrs. Leslie Watson and Bernard Strevens, Rochester, N.Y.

Guests at the reception dinner held in the Y.W.C.A. were received by Mrs. Gladys Keelor, sister of the bride, wearing a gown of navy blue with rose accessories and a corsage of pink roses, and the groom's mother wearing a lavender-rose gown with purple accessories and a mauve corsage.

The couple left on a trip to the Laurentians, the bride wearing a two-piece suit of amethyst gabardine with black nylon accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Kingcrafts Reviews Year's Work Marks Its Second Anniversary

With a sense of pride, Lady Flavelle, president of Kingcrafts Guild, guided the thoughts of the organization back over the past two years when she presented her address at the second annual meeting, held at "Cedar Brook", the home of Mrs. W. H. Denton, Oct. 22. "We can walk ahead with confidence toward the ultimate goal, embodied in the constitution," to endeavor to improve the skill of artistry of those practicing crafts," said the president.

The sale of work undertaken by the organization at Kingswold, Lady Flavelle's home, last June was the highlight of the year. "This enterprise was a valuable experience for the future development of Kingcrafts. It astonished us that the articles we had produced were not only highly praised but were keenly sought by our non-craft friends.

The formation of the junior group, the Teencrafters, is a progressive step. The president stressed the importance of instilling children with a desire to create with their hands.

The annual report, prepared by the secretary, Mrs. E. B. Johnston, was read by Miss Winnifred Boys. It contained a detailed picture of the year's activities.

Designs from Textiles

Miss Vera Clarke, assistant to the curator of the textiles branch of archaeology of the Ontario Royal Museum, was the guest speaker. She has charge of historical gowns of ancient and modern textiles, and is doing research work in this capacity.

Miss Clarke displayed pieces of textiles from various countries and periods, illustrating the quality of design in relation to the medium in which they could be used in handicraft.

By drawings, Miss Clarke demonstrated how to choose a motif and fit it into space. She said the outdoor scenes and natural life at King offer unlimited possibilities.

Mrs. H. M. Weiss thanked Miss Clarke for her lecture and Mrs. E. B. Phair thanked the hostess, Mrs. Denton, for her hospitality.

In preparation for the pre-Christmas sale of craft work amongst members on Nov. 26, at the home of Mrs. Beatty, all work should be in the hands of Mrs. Geoffrey Beatty by Nov. 17.

Carrying on for the coming year are Lady Flavelle, pres.; Mrs. J. L. Grew and Mrs. G. Beatty, first and second vice-pres., respectively; Mrs. E. B. Johnston, sec.; Mrs. Hilliard Bryan, treas.; Mrs. C. F. Johnston, corr. sec.

Does the picture of a pig walking down the street on his hind legs eating candy, appear absurd to you? Well it is no more absurd than the belief that some farmers have; that buying concentrates for their livestock is the same as buying candy for their children, something they can afford to buy only when the margin of profit is large.

Concentrates are not candy. They are the meat, the milk and the vegetables of every animal's ration. Concentrates must be present in every ration if the animal is to show rapid, profitable gains.

Animals fed straight grain can't be grown profitably, for grain lacks some things required for profitable growth. Animals will consume excessive amounts of grain, which is wasted, as they try to balance their own ration. End this wastage, by feeding a ration balanced with SHUR-GAIN Concentrates. THERE IS NO BETTER FEED THAN YOUR OWN GRAIN CUSTOM MIXED WITH SHUR-GAIN CONCENTRATES.

SHUR-GAIN Concentrates will save and make you money

DON'T ENDURE "MORNING SLUGGISHNESS"

Do you wake up morning after morning feeling tired out? And does that dull, heavy sensation drag on all day, making life a misery?

Don't put up with it.

Chances are the whole trouble stems from sluggish kidneys and constipation. Your system is becoming clogged by accumulated poisons that are slowing you down.

Kruschen Salts are a wonderful help at these times. In many ways they are identical with the waters of well-known Mineral Springs . . . in other words, much more than a simple laxative. For Kruschen contains diuretic ingredients (for the kidneys). So they help you to get rid of waste matters through healthy, natural bowel and kidney action.

Millions of people use Kruschen. They have found that less than half a teaspoonful in hot water works wonders. Find out what Kruschen can do for you from your nearest druggist today.

"the drivers are swell!"

"The next time I go to see uncle Ed I'm going to go on the bus. Last week grandma and I had a long bus trip and the drivers were really swell. When we changed buses the driver helped grandma and me to pick out our new bus and he told her not to worry about anything. The new driver was swell too and he told me he had a little girl like me at home. I sure like going on the bus."

IN MEMORIAM

DOAK—In loving memory of a dear grandma who passed away October 23, 1950.
Day by day our thoughts do wander,
To a grave not far away;
Where they laid our dear gram,
Just two years ago today.
Sadly missed by Jackie, Val and Hazel.

FOUNTAIN—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, Ella May Fountain, who pased away on October 27, 1943.
Another year has passed,
Our hearts are aching still
Their graves are ever before our eyes
In the cemetery on the hill.
The dear old home we always loved,
Is dead to us as well;
Fond memories will linger forever,
Round the home where they once did dwell.
Ever remembered by Ethel, Vera, and Ross and grandchildren Doris, Verne and Lowell.

MILLIGAN—In loving memory of our dear mother, Eliza Mary Milligan, who passed way, October 31, 1947.
"In memory's garden,
We meet every day.
Sadly missed by Emily and Harry.

MILLIGAN—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Eliza Mary Milligan, who passed away October 31, 1947.
As long as life our hearts shall hold,
Thy memory ever dear,
And o'er thy grave in loving grief
Shall fall a silent tear.
Ever remembered by Martha, Fred and family.

PARK—In loving memory of a dear brother, G. A. Park, who passed away November 2, 1951.
He bade no one a last farewell,
He said goodbye to none;
His spirit fled before we knew,
That he from us had gone
At night the silent stars look down,
On a grave not far from here;
Where sleeps the one we can't forget,
The one we love so dear.
Lovingly remembered by his brother Ross and sister-in-law Rose.

SEDORE—In loving memory of our dear son, Glenn LeRoy, who was taken so suddenly from us November 3, 1951, in his eleventh year.
Gone from us his smiling face,
And his pleasant cheerful ways,
A heart that won so many friends
In by-gone happy days.
Though his smile has gone forever,
And his hands we cannot touch,
We shall never lose sweet memories
Of our son we loved so much.
As we loved him, so we miss him,
In our memories he is near,
Loved, remembered, longed for always
Bringing many a silent tear.
Sadly missed and ever remembered by Daddy, Mother and sister Brenda.

SEDORE—In loving memory of our only grandson, Glenn, who left us so suddenly on November 3, 1951.
We who loved you sadly miss
As it dawns another year;
you,
In our lonely hours of thinking
Thoughts of you are ever near.
Sadly missed by grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Bache.

IT'S A Woman's World

By Caroline Ion

Oh, what we heard a man say last week. It was terrible. Really, you wouldn't believe it but it's true. Promise you won't repeat a single word if we tell you.

We don't like to bear tales but some things we just can't pass over lightly. There's no telling where they might lead. Goodness only knows how long this had been going on without our knowledge.

We stumbled upon this information quite by accident. In fact, it all came about when we were invited to a banquet at the King George hotel. Now on the surface that appears to be quite in order. The reason for holding the banquet was an acceptable one and so with those interested in conservation and particularly with the Upper Holland River Conservation authority, we prepared to enjoy a delicious meal.

The speaker of the evening was introduced. It was noted that he was a sportsman and keenly interested in conservation. Then, after a brief introduction we heard this man begin to tell of the wild life in the country. In fact he even went farther than that and spoke favorably about it. We almost choked over the coffee. Surely, in Newmarket, in the year 1952, this man wasn't going to pretend that life in the country was wild.

Well, maybe there is the occasional still in operation. Certainly there are a few liquor charges laid in court weekly but that could hardly be termed "the wild life".

We have heard some tall tales of local residents' visits to that big, bad city, New York. We have read accounts which imply that our neighbor to the south is given to wide-open living. But, here in our small town of Newmarket we were being told to protect that wild life.

After our first bewilderment we began to wonder if the wild life in the country was so much better than that of the urban centres that it warranted protection. Of course there is that Bohemian atmosphere in Newmarket; remember the arts, crafts and drama. Then it might be that the rural population is less inhibited than their city cousins. "How do the local dances compare with those at the Royal York?" we mused.

The speaker referred to beaver, moose and deer. No mention was made of pink elephants. It was very confusing. There wasn't one green cow, purple giraffe or even a small snake. (He must have lost a different weekend.)

Suddenly our attention was brought back to the topic. We had been led to believe in the simple way of life. We had been trained that our children were to be taught the good, simple pursuit of happiness. But no more. Here were all these prominent citizens listening and agreeing with our speaker. He said the children should be taught to appreciate this wild life. To know that it was their's to enjoy.

Oh, we just knew that would shock you. Isn't that terrible? My, what is this world coming to that we should encourage our young ones in this way? Wild life is not for them. And so, although as we said before, we don't like telling tales, we felt we had to put a stop to this dreadful state of affairs.

It's bad enough when grown men praise wild life. It's even worse when they make comparisons and claim that the wild life is wilder in their districts. But, really, don't you agree with us that such wild life doesn't need protection?

There must be no more wild life in the country or the city. Let this dilly-dally about the animals of the forest not confuse the issue.

SCOUTS COLLECT $240

The annual Scout-Cub Apple Day held in Newmarket and district on Saturday, Oct. 18, was well supported. $240 was raised by the boys through the sale of their apples in Newmarket, Sharon and Queensville.

The scouts and cubs make this one appeal annually for funds and the money raised is used locally for the work of this world-wide youth movement. The boys and their leaders wish to thank those who supported their Apple Day, making it such a success.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

The teams battling in Canada's two great football conferences, the Interprovincial in the east, the Western Interprovincial on the prairies, are nearing the end of the long, hard trail, and the Grey Cup classic played annually in Toronto is almost in sight.

This is Canada's biggest, most spectacular, one-day sports spree, where amid a riot of color and white 10-gallon hats, east meets west, perhaps in snow, perhaps in mud, perhaps on a clear, fast greenish field. It is our greatest sports spectacle, it is also the meeting of two contrasting type of folks, the jovial, friendly, breezy westerners, the more conservative easterners.

All this we admit, the glory and the color of it all. But you'll pardon us if we again go on record as stating that we don't believe this great one-day show is a fair break for the customers, either east or west. This is a remark that probably will get us ostracized from better social circles in fair Toronto, a city in which we have, hitherto, been received with warmth and hospitality. But even at the risk of suffering the cold shoulders and icy disdain of Bay, Bloor, College and other centres, we still insist that the football customers, the humble gents who make the whole thing possible, aren't getting a fair break.

We're thinking of the good sports folk of Regina, Calgary, Edmonton and Winnipeg, who have dug generously and deeply into their jeans when deficits faced their beloved clubs, fans who paid their way in to every game, fans without whose support none of the teams could exist. And the same applies to Ottawa, Montreal and Hamilton, though in lesser degree, because these cities are within easy reach of Toronto, for those who have plane, bus or train fare, and can get a ticket.

We think this series should be home-and-home games, at least, in the cities of the two champion teams. Perhaps this wouldn't draw so much money as the one-day show in Toronto, because none of the other cities have anything approaching the capacity of the huge Toronto Varsity stadium, excepting possibly Montreal, where the games are played in the baseball park, on a bob-tailed field.

But, of course, if money is the fundamental consideration, our argument is all wrong. We were figuring, merely from the sporting angle for a sort of grand finale in which the customer, instead of being deprived of the finale of the big drama, would get a chance to see the thing he had helped create, like the Stanley Cup, or world's baseball series. These do pretty well financially, at that.

Your comments and suggestions for this column will be welcomed by Elmer Ferguson, c/o Calvert House, 431 Yonge St., Toronto.

N.Y. Minors Organize

Minor hockey in North York has had a face lifting and appears headed for a brighter tomorrow. The North York minor hockey league organization meeting held in the Aurora arena Monday met with striking success. Five teams, Stouffville, Woodbridge, Richmond Hill, Aurora and Newmarket were represented, and a sixth, Nobleton, sent along word they were definitely interested in the proposed set up.

Stouffville, Richmond Hill and Aurora indicated they had juvenile teams ready for action and the door was left open for Woodbridge and Newmarket to enter this sector of the league if they so desired. Woodbridge, Richmond Hill, Nobleton, Aurora and Newmarket indicated hopes of filing bantam entries.

In the midget division three teams, Aurora, Nobleton and Woodbridge are definite starters and Newmarket will be invited to enter to make it a four team loop. The managers of the various teams will meet again in two weeks time, after they have had an opportunity to complete their own plans and ascertain what ice time will be available at their home rinks.

At the manager's meeting two weeks hence, league plans will be finalized and a schedule covering each division will be drawn up. League will be governed by O.M.H.A. rules and age groups and each team will submit a final players' list on Dec. 15. Bill White, Tubby Barrow, Don. Ross (Richmond Hill), Jim Thomas (Stouffville), P. E. Perryment (Aurora), Gord. Longhurst (Woodbridge), Geo. Haskett (Newmarket) attended the meeting Geo. Haskett was named league governor.

Off To Flying Start

Mount Albert "Sedore Loaders", last year's Newmarket and District Hockey League champions, lest there be any doubt about it, have let it be known early they're all out to make it two in a row this season.

First steps with any team harboring ambitions of this nature is to name an energetic executive. The Mounties last week took those necessary strides by electing a strong 14-man board to guide the destinies of the tea during the 1952-53 campaign.

Here's the Mount Albert executive for this year: Ernie Davis, pres.; Geo. Snyder, first vice-pres.; Gordon Young, second vice-pres.; Lorne Mainprize, sec.-treas.; Horace Pearson, asst. sec.-treas.

Executive board is composed of Ernest Sedore, Art Westgarth, Bill McQuaid, Jack Stevens, Bill Farr, Bill Morton and Bill Hicks. Morley "Joe" Case has been selected as manager, and Murray Edgar, the hustling three-R man, returns as coach. The team will get its baptism this week in a tune-up game with Sutton Greenshirts.

NEWMARKET VETS TO MEET

Election of officers for the coming year will take place at the regular meeting of Newmarket Veterans' Association, Canadian Corps Branch 119, tomorrow evening (Friday, Oct. 31), at 8 o'clock. Meeting will take place in the Vets' dugout. A social time will followed. All members are urged to be present and other veterans are cordially invited to attend.

Down The Centre

By AB. HULSE

Tonight the tough-rough hombres called Lindsay Muskies will visit Newmarket and district fans will catch their first glimpse of the '53 Spitfires. There may be some surprises in the line-up and some missing faces.

Definitely, absent and headed for the retired list are Fink Tunstead, fiery utility, Swifty Todd, speedy forward, who played lackadaisical hockey last winter, Normie Legge, a battler all the way who fell heir to injuries, and the old reliable Joe Tunney, missing his first hockey season in 15 years. Joe, we understand, is soon to be a Warrant Officer in the R.C.A.F. and it couldn't happen to a better fellow.

All those retirements are of a voluntary nature and purely from choice. Last week we said Al Shewchuk would be with the Orillia Terriers. Well, Al is reported to be signed with the Spits but he's still practicing with Orillia as well as Newmarket and he took part in an exhibition contest with the Terriers on Saturday. Sunday he was in mufti at the practice session.

With Jack Dyte now moved to Simcoe as coach of Simcoe Gunners, there is rumor that Shewchuk now has the coaching chore at Orillia if he wants it. Like most everyone in these parts, we'd like to see Shewchuk back with the Spits. With Ross Hochberger, Jack Andrews and Zip Thompson on hand the Spits would have the best collection of blue linemen in intermediate "A" company. Thompson, already a Newmarket resident, formerly played with Marlboros and Oshawa and has been around the mercantile circuit for some years. He's plenty good.

Ken Tupling will likely hold down the goal job, although Fink Chard will see action as well. Chard of course comes under the import ruling if the Spits keep him. Tupling, like Bill Mulholland, qualifies as a district resident. Chard incidentally played junior hockey for both Weston and Brampton against Aurora.

Bill Mabett, back from a year in Scotland, rejoined the Spits at practice. Gordy Lewis, Stouffville, who played in Scotland with Bill wants to play in Newmarket but again doggone Metropolitan area comes into play. Myles McInnis, Don Smith, Bill Johnston, Bill Mundell, Bill Patrick, Grant Firth, Ed. Couch, Keito Collings, Ken Broughton, Tom Brodie, Grant Winters are sure starters.

Yes, I know I haven't mentioned the Gold Dust Twins, partners in hockey for six years, Orlie Thoms and Don Gibson. I'm pulling for them to be with the Spits but last Sunday they sat out the practice and 'tis said that "Uncle Bill" Thoms was on hand trying to secure releases for the boys so they could play for Mahers.

With the Muskies will be Grant Green, former Aurora junior, and probably Paul Maguire, another district favorite. It should be a dandy game.

Friday night at Aurora, the Bears will meet Dixie Juniors, coached by Flash Hollett. The Dixiecrats are a junior "B" club grouped with Oakville, Burlington, Hamilton and Dundas. The Bears dropped two games to Scarboro Rangers on Friday and Monday but won themselves plenty of plaudits and friends. It was 9-6 for the Rangers at Aurora and 8-7 for Scarboro at home. The Bears just didn't have the playing legs both nights to last out.

At Scarboro however, down 6-2 at one stage in the second period, they staged a blistering finish that had the fans on their feet. The presence of the injured Noel Ash in either game might have made the difference for the Bears. Ash, out with a broken hand, won't be ready until December.

Jim Patton was injured on Friday and missed Monday's game while Jackie Woods received a bad Charlie Horse on Monday. Both boys are expected back on Friday. The goal-tending job has settled down to a battle between Dixie Rhodes and Joey Burke with both boys being about even. The kids are friendly rivals too and both will stay with the club.

Grant Edwards, who has looked anything but good in his two games, was redhot on Monday night and played a great game. Probably the most improved player on the entire squad this year is Bobs Cook. Outstanding in all three games has been Bill Smith. That line of Smith, Martin and Halder will be pretty potent once they get settled away.

A new recruit, Bill McEown, looked like a safe bet for a place on his initial appearance on Friday. The club used Ron Knowles on Monday as they were short of players but he'll definitely stay in juvenile company.

Aurora incidentally has a smart juvenile club, coached by Bill Mundell and Jack Andrews. Ron Starkey in the nets, and Stew Wilson played junior last winter, while Ron Knowles and Gerry Chapman have both had junior experience. Don Morning played with Newmarket last year, as did one or two others. Minor hockey will receive a big boost with the organization of a District League. So far it's only at the talking stage.

The time is approaching when either the Recreation Commission or the Arena will have to think about acquiring some means of transportation either by way of permanent charter or purchasing a bus for full use. The use of cars is presenting increasing problems all the time to those in charge of teams, especially minor clubs. In addition, once the hockey is over along comes baseball and softball.

Daily swimming classes and many other items are reaching the recreation agenda. We know the answers against such an idea but at least it's worth a second thought.

Friday afternoon, all the male students at Aurora High will be on safari as the cross-country run, once a school feature, will be run again after an absence of 11 years. To the winner goes the Dr. Bruce Macdonald trophy.

Harry Couse, Cookstown, at the annual South Simcoe softball banquet, once again announced his retirement. This time Harry spoke as if he really meant it. Couse came in a winner and if he must retire let's see him go out that way. Ken Tupling of Bradford won the batting honors and Blake Constable of Fennels got the most valuable player award.

STRIKES AND SPARES

Didn't get far last couple of weeks in our plans to get the bowling leagues rolling. Canadian Hoffman rollers, a Friday night feature at the North End alleys are in their fifth week.

Big guns last week were Frank Daniels 761, Doug Campbell 680, Al Bryson 671, Ken Thoms 611.

Six teams are in the hunt for the Office Specialty Officemen's league honors. They're captained by Lou Bovair, Geo. Phimister, Don Burch, Francis McFarland, Joe VandenBergh and Roy Bennett. Jack Malcolm is league chieftain, Earl Willis, sec.-treas. Jim Cook got the league away in high gear with a 704 count. Other top-notch first nighters were Jim Shropshire 667, Ernie Bennitz 637. Officers are Al Bryson, pres.; are turning in some fine early season marks. Florence Bosworth headed the list last week with 618, Eva Whitfield 604, Audrey Bunn 576. On Oct. 2 Eva Whitfield led the scoring 644, Nora McIntosh 566, Mary Climpson 475. Clara Stark is league president, Nora McIntosh, sec.-treas. Three teams in the race: Queens, capt., Eva Whitfield; Pin-ups, capt., Nora McIntosh; Dubs, capt., Paulene VandenBergh.

Frank Bothwell's hot shot 720 featured last week's Davis Leather bowling. 600 bracket marksmen were Ned Tansley 688, Gord Tunney 665, Andy Cullen 641, Ollie Gould 639, Art Flanagan 624, Len Burling 623. League officials are Carl Turan, pres.; Art Peppiatt, sec.-treas; executive, Laurie Goldsmith, Elmer Brown and Bill Cullen. Four teams are captained by Gord Tunney, John Coates, Bus Jordan and Elmer Brown.

Thursday night ladies have rolled up some fine scores over past three weeks. Oct. 2, Myrt Dunn 688, Ella Wilkins 559, Olive Hughson 531. Myrt Dunn led again Oct. 9 with 674, followed by Mary Londry 530, Edythe Hall 504. Myrt Dunn's 578 and Hazel Bennitz's 577 were features last week.

Roy Gibson is headman of the town Industrial League. Roy Keffer is pres.; Alvin McKnight, sec. ;Ted Williamson, treas. Top shot makers in last week's action were Chas. Tugwell 753, Roy Keffer 730, Floyd Pegg 706, Dave Weddel 702, Ken McInnis 694, Steven Simone 661.

Three shut outs were recorded last week as Rockets, Dixon's and Meteors polished off Metal Workers, Newmarket Dairy and Combines. Dixon's have gone into the lead in the league race with 11 points, followed by Hisey's and Office Specialty 8 each, Metal Workers 7, Meteors 6, Combines 6 and Legion 6.

Town Regents Ready

Town Regents are looking to kick in with a strong club to tilt with Kettleby, Vandorf and Mount Albert for the Newmarket and District Hockey League title. Leastwise that was the general idea thrown out at the Regents' organization meeting held at the arena Thursday.

Some 20 players were ticked off as probable candidates for the playing posts and the team will take to the ice this week for a couple of limbering up exercises in preparation for the league opener against Mount Albert Mounties Nov. 4.

Heading the slate of officers of the club elected at Thursday gathering are Harold Simpson, president and sponsor; Leo Ross, vice-pres.; Bruce Greig, sec.-treas. Mel Stickwood is chief scout and manager while Father T. J. McCabe has consented to coach the team. Herb Cain was named assistant coach.

Mounties Top Sutton To Open Hockey Season

Everyone with a stake in the Newmarket and district hockey loop had eyes glued on the Newmarket arena Tuesday as Mount Albert, town league defending champs, took on Sutton Greenshirts in an exhibition game to start the hockey season away.

The Mounties will be hard to beat again this year as they topped Sutton 5-4. The teams, dog-tired before the night was over, came out of the first period two all, Doug Ross and Elmo Paisley doing honors for Mount.

Alan Lockie and John Learoyd fired Sutton counter-punches. Mounties wrapped it up in round two as they outscored their Greenshirted rivals 3-1. Homer Gregg, Ross Draper and Dave Couch hit pay dirt for Mount. Dick Shannon, assister Ken Davie, racked up the Sutton score and John Leroyd made it a two goal night to complete the Sutton scoring 20 seconds after the third period opened.

Mounties presented two strong attacking units. Dave Couch centred for Bill Brett and Doug Ross, while Bruce Paisley set up the plays for Homer Gregg and Elmo Paisley. Bob Dixon, Ross Draper, Stan Carnegie and Jack Weatherall shouldered the defense burden and did it well.

Red Palmateer, drafted at the last moment from Town Regents, turned in a super shot blocking effort. It was Sutton's first turn on the blades but you can bet the Greenshirts are headed for another rural title.

Haskett's HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT
Newmarket Sports Editor

Ah good, now we can join George in the battle front. Two Georges by george is a hard combination to beat, like holding two aces. Gerry Barker, our opposite number in Aurora, dishes up some harsh and, from our viewpoint, unfounded and unwarranted accusations about the refereeing in the recent Newmarket-Aurora High school football clash.

Elsewhere in these columns genial Fred Speer, N.H.S. coach, rightly takes our opposite to task. This is no private scrap so I'm in for my say so. Your scribe was there.

Reg "Blackie" Blackstock, the referee in question, need make no apologies for his stewardship of the game. From our vantage point he handled an excellent game. Blackie perhaps was just a little sharper and more on his toes than the other officials in the series. For that reason Bombers were caught for 157 yards in penalties. It sounds like quite a large set back but here's the rub.

Let's look at the other games in the series piloted by other competent officials. In those two games Bombers were assessed 90 and 120 yards. And isn't it a fact the Bombers had 120 yards tacked on them against Richmond Hill in an exhibition game? Again a different referee. But does our opposite say the referees jobbed 'em in those contests? He does not.

Could this oversight perhaps be due to the fact Aurora won those games? We'll leave it with you to draw your own conclusions.

It's unfortunate these accusations, away off base and with no basis of fact, should be hurled about promiscuously. No, Reg Blackstock need make no apologies; he's been bossman for college games at Pickering for over 20 years and his judgment and fair play have never been questioned. That record speaks for itself.

As for my own observations your scribe has been attending football and various sporting events at Pickering for years. Blackie is director of physical education there and during those years this corner has never, and I do mean never, witnessed an unsportsmanlike act by a Pickering official or student.

Pickering is one place where sportsmanship and fair play is placed higher up the ladder of success than the mere winning of a contest. That's as it should be in all college and high school sports where building of character and fair play is uppermost in the minds of the physical education men.

As for Taylor Gilbert being injured due to a slow whistle, the charge is ridiculous; when big husky boys with the will to win play for keeps, injuries no matter how good the protection, are likely to crop up and frequently do. It's all in the game and there's no deliberate intention to maim or injure.

If this charge were based on fact, Fred Speer, N.H.S. coach, would be the first to give it an airing. He hasn't, so fie on that nonsense.

More and more in the land of sport there seems to be a growing tendency to blame the officials if you lose when just maybe it's the players' shortcomings. Ah well, maybe it's an easy way out. For our pennies, Speersmen were full value for the win; they weren't given much chance to holding the heavier and more powerfully manned Bombers. They battled like trojans; it was their day and more power to them.

READER'S LETTER TO SPORTS EDITOR
Sports Editor: I sincerely feel that a reply should be made to a sports write-up which appeared in the Aurora paper last week. This article which was read by many local people was purposely written to leave the impression that the football game at Pickering College Tuesday of last week was officiated in a poor and biased manner.

People involved in physical education are continuously striving to develop the mental, moral and social values in the boys and girls with whom they work. These values, such as obedience, co-operation, self-control, friendliness, perseverance and aggressiveness could not have been obtained from Tuesday's game if the article in the Aurora paper is to be believed true.

Reg. Blackstock is responsible for the organization of basketball and hockey official clinics for the purpose of improving the calibre of officiating in this district. To think that a man whose whole life has been devoted to physical education and who in many parts of the country is considered to be one of the top 10 men in physical education in Canada, should be subjected to the accusing remarks that appeared in that paper is indeed lamentable.

It is inconceivable that a man who holds the concepts of physical education so highly would favor one youth over another. Apologies are in order to Reg. Blackstock.

Yours sincerely,
F. J. Speer,
Director of Athletics, N.H.S.

Town League Opens Tuesday

The blood and thunder town leaguers, Newmarket and district hockeyists, if you please, will be off and running on what shapes up as a slam bang, actionful season Tuesday, Nov. 4, in the Newmarket arena.

Newmarket Regents and Mount Albert, defending champions, will provide the kick-off attraction at 7.30 p.m. in the nightcap game, 9 chimes, Kettleby Jets, league newcomers, will tilt with Vandorf Bruins.

Judging from the various predictions coming out of the rival camps the fur's going to fly in what promises to be the league's biggest and brightest year.

A quick review of the prospects of the four teams might not be amiss. The Mounties, with coach Murray Edgar doing a good job of hauling back most of last year's regulars are being ballyhooed in the arena hallways as the team to beat. Sparking the Mounties' desire to hold onto the trophy will be gallopin' Bob Dixon, goal scoring whizzers Bill Brett, Dave Couch, Doug Ross, Bruce Paisley and ever-ready shot blocker, Bill Mulholland.

Vandorf Bruins, finalists last season, with old reliables Archie Forfar, Ross Forfar, Bun Sellars and Jim Preston to carry the scoring load plus Andy Lloyd, Mike VanNostrand and new recruit Loring Doolittle to bulwark the defense, appear stronger than last term. Bruins' hopes for a title may hinge around manager Harry Lavender's bid to sign a top flight shot stopper.

Town Regents, who'll shoulder local hopes to bring home the bacon, appear headed for a banner campaign. The Red White and Blues trotted out 16 players for practice Sunday. List included two net-minders, five defensemen and three complete forward units and there's more to come says manager Mel Stickwood and team sponsor, Harold Simpson.

Trainee list included goal-keepers Bill Ingram, Jim Cook, defensemen Deb Cooper, Basher Groves, Bruce Greig, Aubrey Smith and Jack Smith, while up front goal-getting tribe was made up of Bill McHale, Lowell Waller, Stan Gibbons, Jack Staley, Bob Smith, Ken Groves and Spitfires of last year Don Gibson, Ortie Thoms and Motts Thoms.

Kettleby Jets, league's first year team and dark horses have a squad that dispenses both speed and scoring power. John Weedon has the net-minding job nailed down, defense will be built around Doug Terry and speeder Gerald Chapman. Stan Foster, Don Munshaw, ex-Aurora Bear, Don Marchant the Schomberg flash, Frank Rocket Young and Ted Rogers will spearhead the Jets' scoring units.

Who'll win? Take your choice. Personally we'll ask Santa Claus to leave a note in our Christmas stocking as to the winner.

Bombers Win N. York Title

Frank Gregoire's Double-Blue Aurora high Bombers are the new North York Football kings. The Bombers put the clutch on the title Tuesday afternoon with an impressive 18 - 6 win over Fred Speer's N.H.S. Raiders.

Gregoire boys after losing the first game at Newmarket, came back handsomely to take the next two and title. Friday's game was an Aurora triumph 12 - 6. Peering at Tuesday's affray on neutral St. Andrew's field Bombers won it with a smashing three touchdown third quarter drive that hauled them from behind a 6 1 half-time deficit.

Newmarket forged their 6 - 1 edge on the strength of Neil Tate's touchdown chuck to Art Gibney and a single kicked by Tate. Aurora's point was a single by Don Busby.

Bombers put their offensive machinery into high gear in that third quarter strike. The third quarter was three minutes old when husky hard driving, Geo. Vrana punched off tackle to find a hole in the Newmarket line to even the score. Keith Kincaid passed 20 yards to Jim Crysdale at the Newmarket five and Crysdale romped over for the TD.

That play and Don Busby's convert gave the Double-Blue a 12 - 6 lead and Aurora's not-to-be-denied twelve wrapped it up before three quarter time ran out as Kincaid plunged two yards for the third Aurora major.

Busby converted to make it 18 - 6. There was spectacular line work and a sure fire defense against Newmarket's aerial offensive feature with the new champs.

In the Friday game it was Newmarket away in the lead first as Neil Tate's 25 yard pass hit Don Budd and that coupled with Laurie VanZant's convert gave Newmarket a 6 - 0 lead. Aurora, from there on, threw up a strong defense against the Speersmen's aerial offensive. Don Busby rouged and Aurora rolled from their own forty on four successive plays and then slanted Geo. Vrana off tackle for a touchdown to tie it 6 all at halftime.

Aurora went ahead to stay in the second quarter as Don Busby kicked a rouge and Ron Geddes hit Bill Jans with a 30 yard heave in the Newmarket end zone to make it 12 - 6.

Aurora: K. Kincaid, J. Preston, A. Dawson, R. Geddes, L. Easterbrook, D. Morning, T. McClenny, B. Andrews, J. Crysdale, D. Harrison, B. McCachen, M. Lawlor, W. Jans, J. Urquhart, R. Knowles, D. Busby, G. Vrana, W. Case, N. Ethridge, R. Brown, R. Fortier, J. Hodgkinson, T. Rogers, J. Howey, S. Wilson.

PAIR WINS GOLF TOURNEY
Fred Henney and Bud Pettit, a pair of Newmarket golfers, overcame the elements and 15 opposing twosomes to win the two-ball golf tournament staged ed at the Highlands club, Aurora, over the Thanksgiving weekend. The tournament was the last of the season at the Highlands and the two Newmarket devotees proved they could take it by winning despite the rain, wind and snow they encounter in their tour of the links.

Rangers Nip Bears

Aurora Bears haven't laid a win by the heels as yet; they lost 9-6 and 8-7 to Scarboro Rangers in a home and home Friday and Monday set.

Andy Closs and Charlie Rowntree aren't perturbed about this state of affairs. Why should they be? The Bears have been pitted against tough junior B opponents and have put dash and scrap into their early gallops to more or less hold their own.

They'll be better too as coach Rowntree knits his final defense duos and attacking units, so it speaks volumes for a successful go in junior C. Friday's game was a sizzler.

Bears matched stride for stride with the highly touted Rangers. Teams played hockey and that pleased the clients. Extra curricula shenigans only popped up once and that in the last five minutes of the game, referees Bob Peters and Harvey Gibney drawing a bead on Bears Jeff Halder, Walt Fines and Tommy Collings and along with their three Ranger sparring partners, they drew five minutes each.

That left the sides with four men apiece. The Bears went on the attack to crack a 6 all tie and left themselves open for a breakaway. Palmer, Ranger's speediest puck hound, got it to beat Wally Rhodes in the Aurora twinery at 15.27 to break the tie and less than a minute later, 15 seconds apart, Barlow and Clark counted and it was all up with the Bears.

Bears started out with intentions of brightening Coach Rowntree's evening. They stormed around the Ranger citadel for a 3-1 first period lead, Rangers turned the tables in the middle stanza outpointing the Bears 3-1 to make it 4 all and the teams traded two goals apiece up to the three quarter pole of the third to make it 6 all.

Walt Fines did a grade A job. Pepper Martin, Peff Halder and Bill McKeown, a Bears newcomer, dished up the Bears' other scoring efforts before Andy Closs and Jack Woods worked in cahoots for the Bears' final two. Woods, a tireless workhorse, was effective up front and Joe Burke played a stand-out game in goal in the first two periods.

Bob Hanna, up with his best effort to date, scored twice Monday to pace the Bears in their first road test. Andy Closs, Bill Smith, Bobbs Cook, Walt Fines and Grant Edwards collected the other scoring credits as the Bears all but pulled the game out of the fire with a four-goal third period spurt.

Departing Resident Praises Aurora Good Neighborliness: Store Regulations In 1854

A message such as we have to record here, from a resident of Aurora for the past two years, makes pleasant reading, apart from the circumstances which, most unfortunately, have brought it about. It is from Mr. George Cluff, of Mark street, who has performed the duties of building inspector since September, 1950.

Mr. Cluff asked to say how deeply he regrets his enforced departure from Aurora, resulting from the persisting illness of Mrs. Cluff. He asked to state that "he liked the people of Aurora; he liked Aurora as a town to live in; and he had liked his part-time job as building inspector." That is a pretty complete testimonial.

Mrs. Cluff has, regrettably, been ill for some time, and it is felt that a return to her native air may restore her. They are moving to Fenelon Falls where Mr. Cluff is building a new home. In the immediate neighborhood are members of their family and many old friends. If all goes well, Mr. and Mrs. Cluff will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary in September of next year.

Mr. Cluff was also anxious that we should thank the neighbors on Mark St., on behalf of his wife and himself, for what he described as their "wonderful kindness" during the past anxious months of illness. "Our neighbors have been wonderful," said Mr. Cluff, "and we cannot say too much in praise of all their many kindnesses." No day went by, he said, without one or more of them looking in to see if there was any service they could do to help out. We are glad to make these kindnesses known and Mr. Cluff's acknowledgment of them.

In his younger days Mr. Cluff managed a hockey team at Haliburton and has continued his interest in the popular national sport. He has sold his home on Mark St. to Mr. Joe Hay of Holland Marsh. Whe he came to Aurora we had the pleasure of giving him an introductory write-up in his capacity of building inspector.

We found Mr. Cluff an agreeable and kindly man and personally regret his departure. We know we are expressing the wishes of his many friends in trusting that Mrs. Cluff will soon be stored to health, with many years of happiness before them. Mr. Cluff has many friends in Newmarket, and a cousin, Ted Adams, barber, on Main St.

Mr. S. C. King

At the request of Mayor Rose, Mr. Sam King, a neighbor of Mr. Cluff's, came to council personally to support the written application he had made to succeed Mr. Cluff as building inspector. He is a member of the Aurora Rotary club and is well-known in Aurora. Council decided, however, to follow the usual procedure of advertising for applicants for the position, which was right and proper.

Mr. King said he had had "some experience in building." He was, however, as we know, much too modest in the presentation of his knowledge of building. He did not mention, for example, the King Estate in Toronto, which he and his father built, comprising homes, stores and apartments. Nor did he mention that his father and he had built properties in Florida.

Actually, the position of building inspector in Aurora is part-time, on a commission basis, and the duties it involves do not go beyond those of seeing that the blueprints are adhered to. It is in no sense an executive position in which the building inspector approves the type of building proposed for erection. All of that is approved by the council building permits committee, subject to conformity with the land-use by-law. All that the building inspector is required to do is to see that the regulations are observed.

Whether or not Mr. King obtains the position, we can say that he is a very likeable and agreeable man who is used to meeting the public (he has summer resorts in Haliburton county), and unlike that of a writer, for example, will not get under anybody's skin.

Too Good To Miss

In the Willis drug store the other day we found John junior chuckling over something he was reading in a trade journal. He passed it to us and we thought it was too good to remain locked up for the eyes of merchants only. It set forth drug store rules in operation during the year 1854, and the three paragraphs read as follow. The caption notes "How Times Have Changed".

"Store will be opened promptly at 6 a.m. and remain open until 9 p.m. the year round. Store must not be opened on the Sabbath day unless absolutely necessary and then only for a few minutes.

"Any employee who is in the habit of smoking Spanish cigars, getting shaved at a barber shop, going to dances and other places of amusement, will most certainly give his employer reasons to suspect his integrity and all round honesty.

"Each employee must attend Sunday school every Sunday. Men employees are given one evening a week for courting purposes, and two if they go to prayer meeting regularly. After 14 hours of work in the store, the remaining leisure time must be spent in reading good literature."

Why a man's integrity should have been questioned in the year 1854 for one reason that he got himself shaved at a barber shop is a point that we can only refer to Jack Pennock. Times have changed, as the caption states.

Sibbald's Point

A friend motored us and three companions to Sibbald's Point last week. He was anxious to take us to the top of the tower of St. George's church, to see the surrounding country scenery and the panorama of nature in its October coloring; and also the famous Chinese vases in the collection of the Sibbald family.

The church itself was open, though much chillier in the interior than we found it one day in the early summer. But the entrance to the top of the tower was closed, and as for the famous vases they were locked up in the Eidel museum, now closed for the season. These were disappointments which did not, however, spoil a delightful excursion on a beautiful October afternoon.

St. George's Anglican church is a perfect model of innumerable similar churches that have stood for centuries on British soil, especially in the southern and eastern counties of England. But the lovely grapevine carving, which is a feature of St. George's, must be very rare, for Sibbald family originated from Devonshire, England, and the church they erected is an abiding tribute of their love for their native land.

Original Window Show

Pharmacy is as old as mankind. Some beautiful illustrations of its history are on display at the Hess drug store, in an original window show. There is, for example, a drawing in color of Shen Nung, reputed founder and teacher of pharmacy in China 2000 years before the birth of Christ. Other illustrations describe the practice of pharmaceutical healing in Egypt 1500 B.C., and in Greece 350 B.C.

We congratulate Mr. O. D. Hess on an original I.D.A. window display.

Still More Money

Early estimates of the net gains from the vigorous peanut drive by the local Rotarians have been much exceeded. Those estimates put the figure at from $500 to $600. We now learn that the net result will be not less than $750, and may exceed that amount, in the cause of welfare work. All of which is fine work on the part of the local

PENALIZING THE VICTIMS

Some time ago in these columns we described damages caused to a car owned by an Aurora business man, arising out of an improper right turn made by a truck driver who carried no insurance. Our purpose in so doing was to emphasize the urgent need for compulsory insurance for all users of motor vehicles. The owner of the car carried heavy insurance and in order to obtain some redress by the driver who carried none the case was eventually taken to court by the issuing of a writ.

The truck driver made a court appearance but asked for an adjournment for the attendance of witnesses which he stated he could provide. The judge ordered payment into court of the amount claimed by the car owner, pending a further hearing. No such payment was made and when the case came up for a re-hearing neither the truck driver nor the witnesses he had promised turned up.

The car owner had employed legal assistance and had to lose time from his business to make two appearances in court. He also brought with him a police officer as a witness. The judge ordered damages and costs to be paid to the car owner, but not the legal costs involved. The latter would have to be borne by the owner of the car. The next step in these proceedings, it was stated, would be an instruction to the sheriff to make an effort to collect the damages and costs from the court-defaulting truck driver.

The case illustrates the loss and annoyance caused to car owners and other drivers of vehicles who try and do their conscientious duty by paying heavy insurance premiums to protect themselves and others, while uninsured drivers rampage the highways with no sense of responsibility or means of protection for their victims. The foregoing is but another instance proving the urgent need of compulsory insurance for all users of road vehicles.

AN EXCELLENT PROJECT

In our issue of last week an advertisement appeared on behalf of the Aurora Junior Chamber of Commerce, announcing its resumption of the public speaking course which proved so successful last season. This is something really worth while and the Jaycees are to be congratulated on a further proof of the value of their organization.

The public speaking course will assist all those who wish to learn how to express their ideas clearly and convincingly. Good impromptu speaking is largely the result of practice and experience. The majority of people find it difficult to stand up before an audience and think and talk at the same time. But it can be learned, and the best way to learn it is through the medium of such a course as the Jaycees are again making available to all who wish to take it up at small cost.

Some of the best speakers in town are members of the Junior chamber of commerce. For that reason we wish they would at sme time initiate a literary and debating society, which would provide a forum where all kinds of subjects could be debated. Good debating is a stimulating mental exercise and highly educational. Such a society would develop home talent. Aurora possesses many useful organizations, but so far it cannot boast of a cultural stimulus such as a literary and debating society provides.

Meanwhile we congratulate the Jaycees on resuming the public speaking course and trust the response will be gratifying. A trained instructor, and a 16 weeks' course for the sum of $15, is a cheap price to pay for learning the art of public speaking.

REVIEW OF COUNCIL

Nominations for municipal offices will take place on Thursday evening, November 20. Following the usual practice, those who have held office will no doubt present accounts of their stewardship direct to the electors at the nomination meeting. Having sat in on all council meetings during the year, as a reporter and an interested spectator, we propose to give our own impressions in future articles.

This newspaper is not committed to anyone's favor. We believe we are correct in our belief that our circulation has been built up and maintained because of the confidence of our readers that we will tell them what we think is true. They may not always agree with our opinions and judgments. That would be expecting too much. The writer who tries to please everybody will end up by pleasing nobody. His duty is to write what he believes to be true and take the consequences.

Our work as a reporter has been to give impartial and unbiasse daccounts of what has been said in council. That we have faithfully tried to do. Our work as editor has been to give impartial and unbiased opinions on what has been done, or left undone. We have tried equally faithfully to do that. We have tried our human best to be fair to members of council and to our very loyal and valued readers.

From this basis we will give our impressions of the council now in office in the articles mentioned above.

COUNCIL SIDELIGHTS

Arena Problems And Reading Of Zoning By-Law Were Chief Topics At Last Session

Punctually on the stroke of 8 p.m. Mayor Rose called council into session, a session that produced several surprises. Chief among these was the resignation of town clerk, K. G. Moses, who has taken another position in Toronto. Another resignation was that of George Cluff, building inspector for the past two years, who is leaving Aurora.

Commenting on the situation near the close of business, Councillor D. J. Murray described it as a "mess". It appeared that he had an intention of dealing in detail with the situation as he understood it, but finally contented himself with a few brief observations. Perhaps it was as well, for when Mr. Murray really gets going he is apt to stir a hot debate.

In any case Mr. Moses assured council that he was leaving his position as clerk and treasurer for the convincing reasons that he had another job to go to with more money and less responsibility. They are reasons that would appear satisfactory to most men.

Notwithstanding the good fortune that has come to Mr. Moses, affairs at the town hall have not been what one might describe as stable during the past two years, with five resignations on the score-board. These were Mr. Large, Mr. Clarke, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Diamond, and now Mr. Moses. In the case of Mrs. Dickson, her resignation was brought about through the resignation of her husband, Mr. Tom Dickson, as recreation and arena manager, and their departure from the district.

The position of town clerk is a very responsible one. It could be that if this major fact had been more keenly appreciated over the years, a greater stability in the history of the office would have been evident. There have been only three holders of the office of clerk-treasurer in the adjoining municipality of Richmond Hill during the past 77 years. We wonder how many similar holders of office Aurora has had in that time?

General Business

Considerable time was taken up by council on reports from the finance, water and streets committees. Reeve Cook was able to inform council that the Municipal Board had given verbal authority for the resurfacing and widening of Yonge St. undertaking to commence immediately. The chairman of the Streets committee, Deputy-Reeve Murray, confirmed that a contract for the work had been given to Messrs. Curran and Briggs, at a cost of $54,778.

Councillor D. J. Murray, chairman of the Sports and Publicity committee, again reviewed the arena situation, and again there was a full-time discussion on what had not been done at the rink. An enormous amount of time, and thousands of words, have been spent on the condition of the arena and the failure of the present board to act up to their appointed responsibilities.

Pass It; Rescind It!

What can be described as a curious situation arose in the course of the discussion on the inaction of the Arena board. At its meeting held on October 6, council passed a motion to the effect that the arena be closed to the public until such time as the seating was made safe, and that a letter be sent to the chairman of the Arena board with instructions that steps be taken to ensure safety.

Councillor Jones asserted at that meeting that his inspection had convinced him that three portions of the seating were unsafe. It was Councillor Dale King who moved the motion, and Councillor Jones seconded it. It was little wonder that Mr. King took strong objection to the suggestion by Councillor Davis that council had no right to pass such a motion.

Councillor Murray said he couldn't understand nine sensible men wanting to rescind a motion they had passed only two weeks earlier, when the conditions had not changed. He pointed out that at a hockey match on October 17 the unsafe portions were barricaded off from the public.

However, the motion was rescinded and the Arena board invited to meet again with council at a further joint meeting, in spite of Councillor Corbett's trite observation that the "rink was the Arena board's baby," with Reeve Cook and several other members of council saying much the same thing in different words.

Zoning By-Law

On a motion by Councillor King, seconded by Deputy-Reeve Murray, the zoning by-law was handed to the clerk to read, with a request from the mayor that Mr. Moses be handed a glass of water. Members of council were later supported by a supply of soft drinks (it could be that the clerk also had one) while the 12-page script of 25 minutes' reading tore at their mental and physical powers of endurance.

When the clerk concluded the reading there was nothing more to it. It was put aside for another evening. If and when the second reading is taken, things will really get hot. We don't believe a majority of members of council will commit their fellow-citizens to the shackles of such vexatious and contentious legislation.

ARENA: REPORT AND COMMENT

Cousins, Underhill Attack Aurora News Page; Tucker Decrys "Dirty Linen Wash"

Presiding over what he described as the "most difficult meeting he had ever chaired," Mayor Rose finally claimed that "a reasonable mutual understanding" had been attained at the joint session held on Monday night, October 27, between council and members of the arena board.

In the opinion of this observer and commentator the meeting proved an absolute flop, arising from contradictions that were never reconciled. This further joint meeting was held because members of council, including the mayor himself, had condemned the arena board for its continued inaction and failure to carry out the job for which they were appointed by council.

Mayor Rose, Councillors Corbett, Murray, Jones and King had severely criticized the board. Mayor Rose said that "not a single day's work had been done on the rink" to put it in shape. Councillor King was the man who on Oct. 6, went so far as to move a motion that a letter be sent to the chairman of the board, Mr. F. R. Underhill, directing that the work of repairs be carried out immediately. The work has not been done, yet Mr. King on Monday evening seconded a motion of confidence in the same board, proposed by Deputy-Reeve Murray.

Such contradictions and inconsistencies are amazing! Council first proceeds to reprimand the chairman and his board for not doing the job they were given to do; then it just as easily climbs down, pats the board on the back and gives them a vote of thanks. It all reminds one of the old lady who, seeing Hamlet played for the first time, said "these Hamlets are a remarkable family!"

Meeting Under Way

Opening the meeting, Mayor Rose said he hardly knew what to say. There had been lack of harmony, he said, and council felt it and the board had better get together and try and solve their problems.

ARENA: REPORT AND COMMENT

Then Mr. A. Cousins took a manuscript from his pocket and proceeded to read it. Asserting that the chairman of the board "does not act too quickly" (a truth which nobody would deny!), Mr. Cousins proceeded to give a brief history of the arena. And then he had a slam at the Aurora News Page. "You can read in some papers what did happen," said Mr. Cousins, "and in the Newmarket Era and Express what didn't happen."

When Mr. Cousins had finished his frowsy report, Councillor King asked: "What does the board do now?"

The answer came in the person of Mr. Underhill who made a long and patriotic speech, claiming that the board had "done a good job." Then he went on to say that the board had never been criticized by council and that the real cause of the trouble was the Newmarket Era and Express, by which he meant, of course, the Aurora News Page. It was the real culprit.

Smoking his cigar, Mr. Underhill delivered a bitter attack on this newspaper. But he failed to specify what he found wrong with our reports and comments. He did not indicate one single sentence in all we have written to justify his rambling tirade. It was denunciation unsupported by accompanying evidence. This was not arena business; it was just plain ballyhoo.

We asked the mayor's permission to make a statement. Our request was turned down. Messrs. Underhill and Cousins had it all their own way. All we had intended to do was to ask Messrs. Underhill and Cousins to produce the evidence for their statements. Twice we made a request. Twice we were refused. Not very democratic, was it?

More Slamming

Councillor D. J. Murray rose to point out that as council's representative on the arena board he had given an account of the arena as far back as April. But nothing had been done. Mr. Murray proceeded to specify a long list of repairs that during all the summer months the board had failed to carry out. He read extracts from the arena manager's report dated April 12, showing the considerable improvements that were needed. "Nothing has been done," said Mr. Murray.

Among many other things mentioned by Councillor Murray was the posting of a St. John's sign at the arena window. "The first aid kit was left empty all summer," he said. This failure was only one of more than a dozen complaints registered against the board's negligence.

Mr. Underhill retorted that he "couldn't understand why Mr. Murray kept banging away at the board on small jobs," pointing out that they weren't going to be dictated to by a newcomer like him. "Murray started to tell us what to do," complained chairman Underhill.

Councillor Tucker said he almost felt sorry that he had ever suggested holding that night's meeting. He said he had understood they were to meet to discuss arena business, not "to wash dirty linen for publicity." Mr. Tucker said he had no intention of "washing dirty linen."

Councillor Murray said he and Mr. Underhill had shaken hands at a previous joint meeting of council and the arena board. "I meant my handshake," he said.

Deputy-Reeve Murray said "the handshake business was entirely out of order." He didn't want to hear anything about it.

Councillor Murray interjected the remark that "it looked like a two-man board. Nothing has been done," he repeated. "The walls and floors are in bad condition." Mr. Murray reminded his hearers that "he was not inexperienced in arena matters."

Heat Turned On!

Reeve Cook rose to deliver a heated defence of the arena board. He claimed that the "Cousins report showed a job well done," adding that he had as much faith in the board as ever. He proceeded to attack Councillor Murray for claiming that he had got the $5,000 grant. (This was the grant from the Agricultural department which Mr. Murray obtained for the town by making a personal visit to parliament buildings, Ed.). Mr. Cook said that the grant had been applied for by the clerk. (This was merely a matter of procedure. Mr. Murray went direct to the department to ask for the grant when the arena board failed to act. Ed.).

Reeve Cook worked himself into such a vehement condition that he later found it necessary to apologize "if he had spoken too strongly."

Deputy-Reeve Murray said he was one hundred percent behind the arena board.

Mayor Rose said there were a lot of things he could say if he were so inclined. But he thought he had better not say them. He did say, however, that he had supported Councillor Murray because he had seen for himself the things of which Mr. Murray had complained.

Councillor Corbett said that he, as chairman of the property committee, had never interfered with the work of the arena board. The arena board was in charge of the arena, and that fact eliminated the property committe.

Defining Duties

When attack and counter-attack had softened somewhat, Mayor Rose asked the arena board chairman if he were prepared to assume control of the operations and maintenance of the arena.

Mr. Underhill replied that the board would always be pleased to see the property committee so long as it "did not attempt to dictate to the board." There followed a lengthy discussion on what "control" implied, with Councillor Jones asserting that the arena board should come to council to have major costs O'K'd.

Mayor Rose finally suggested that the council by-laws committee and three members of the arena board meet to discuss a form of agreement for arena work and this was approved, with Councillor Tucker commending the mayor on his successful conducting of a "difficult meeting."

When the members of the arena board left the meeting (having won another vote of confidence from the council that had just recently reproved them for work left undone, and still undone) council passed a by-law confirming nominations to be held on Thursday night, Nov. 20, and a direction that Mr. Geo. Wilkinson perform the duties of clerk from November 3 until such time as a new town clerk is appointed.

(In our reports of council proceedings concerning discussions on the failure of the arena board to fulfil their requirements, we have carefully and truthfully reported them. No member of council has ever complained of our reporting accuracy. Neither Mr. Underhill nor Mr. Cousins produced one scrap of evidence in support of their unjustified attacks on our newspaper. We were not permitted to question either of the attackers. Having regard to that face we shall provide our own answers in next week's issue of Aurora News Page. We do not take such affronts lying down! Ed.).

ARENA HISTORY

T. F. Swindle Reviews Events In Arena History And Suggests New Setup

Editor's Note: In the following outspoken article, Mr. T. F. Swindle deals with past events in the history of the arena and recommends that its management should be placed in the hands of the Recreation Commission, a suggestion that has been made in this newspaper on several occasions. The Recreation Commission has proved itself a well-organized and highly efficient body and it has gained the confidence of the people.

Mr. Swindle was one of the originators of the Recreation Commission and played a prominent part in its development and expansion. For two years he served on the Arena board but resigned as a protest against its inaction and his own sense of "frustration". He is thoroughly familiar with arena history.

It is interesting to note that the town council, which was so anxious a few short months ago to place the seal of approval on the Arena Commission, has recently instructed its property committee to get work done at the arena, that should normally be done by the Arena Commission.

In fact the members of the Arena Commission passed a motion early in the spring of 1950, instructing that a drain be laid from the creek along the north side of the arena building, and across the east end to a point in line with the south wall of the building, as a necessary step to solve the foundation problem.

Considerable money was spent on excavation for the drain, which was not completed and nothing was accomplished except to create an eye-sore to the neighborhood and a hazard to the children of the vicinity.

The dawdling, dilly-dallying manner in which the Arena Commission executive conducted the business is quite evident, in that after two and one half years, the town council has to take the matter in hand to get anything done.

The matter of the government grant of $5,000 was another instance of the arena executives' inefficiency. Over two years after the motion was passed, instructing that application be made for the grant, nothing had been done until Councillor Jas. Murray took action this year and secured the grant by simply asking for it.

The Arena Commission chairman, Mr. Underhill, was instructed three years in succession to complete a written contract with the former arena manager, but three times he failed to do so, with the result that the manager walked out at a critical time.

These are only a few of the many instances when the efforts of the members of the Arena Commission were thwarted by the executive.

Their sins of omission were bad enough, but their sins of commission were also serious.

For instance, the executive took upon themselves the responsibility of altering the specifications of the contract for the arena building extension by mutually agreeing with the contractor to a change, from a poured concrete foundation wall to one built of blocks, and no meeting was held to give the members an opportunity to express their wishes in the matter until after the wall was built, when they were informed that the chairman had endeavored to contact them by phone.

It is worthy of note that some members who worked within a few feet of a phone all day, and had one in their homes, were not consulted.

In view of this record, and the fact that the Arena Commission has been the talk of the district for their bungling, inefficient administration of arena affairs, it is hard to understand why any town council would attempt to place the seal of approval on them, especially when the commission has failed to give a proper financial report for any of the three years it has been in operation.

It is very doubtful if any member of the council knows what the real financial state of the arena project is. Certainly the average taxpayer is not properly informed regarding a project in which he has $80,000 of debenture capital invested.

Evidently the council is more interested in maintaining the beautiful harmony and good fellowship than in safeguarding the taxpayers' interests!

The appointment of the Arena Commission to handle arena affairs was one of the council's major blunders in recent years.

The Recreation Commission sponsored the installation of artificial ice equipment. They absorbed the sports and publicity committee of the council into membership in the commission, and together they planned and directed the campaign to win the the vote on the by-law, including the publicity, the canvass, and getting out the vote, and as long as the Recreation Commission were in charge the project was carried forward with efficiency and dispatch. But from the moment the Arena Commission took over it stalled, and is still stalled, and will continue to be stalled under the present setup.

There is no good reason why the Recreation Commission, which was established by the council to provide a recreation program for this community, should be denied the direction and use of the community's publicly-owned recreation facilities. Why engage a man to do a job and deny him the use of the tools for that purpose.

The Recreation Commission is a well-led, well-organized group, meeting twice a month, and include members who are capable of handling the arena project efficiently.

There would be no difficulty in selecting a strong, capable arena committee from the following members: Councillor Jas. Murray, Wm. Allen, John Offord, J. E. Buchanan, Don Glass, W. C. Corbett and others.

The Recreation Commission rented the arena for the season of 1948-9 and secured a grant from the Dept. of Education on maintenance, operating, instruction and supervision costs, which is "found" money to the community.

If the Recreation Commission were operating the present arena, under present government regulations, a grant up to a maximum of $4,000.00 a year would be available, but under the present set-up only about $2,000.00 of that amount is obtainable. So the community is losing between $2,000 to $3,000 a year and getting a dawdling, inefficient administration.

The Recreation Commission would present a proper financial statement and accounting promptly each year; the press would have access to its meetings and could keep the public informed and the public's confidence would be restored.

The present council members should be asked for an explanation, at the nomination meeting this year. Why they failed to rectify the arena situation.

The people have a right to know. Unfortunately some people have developed an attitude that resents any honest criticism and retaliate by attempting to brand their critics as nuisances and troublemakers.

Thos. F. Swindle.

"... saved me days, perhaps weeks, of work"

After returning from his first trip to the West, a business man wrote his bank:

"I arrived having no idea where to start in to make the connections I required. The thought occurred to me that perhaps the bank, which has been very helpful to me on numerous occasions, would give me some guidance. Mr. W. proved to be of tremendous help. He introduced me to the people I should have met and saved me days, perhaps weeks, of work."

Every chartered bank works this way. Whether you walk into your neighborhood branch or one a thousand miles away, you will find the same full range of banking service—and the same readiness to help.

30 Years Church Deacon

Miss Alice Ferguson was surprised when she learned a picture of her brother, Professor Walter S. Ferguson, Toronto, appeared in a Toronto daily, Saturday evening. He was the recipient of a new Bible from Bloor Street United church to mark his 50 years as an elder of that congregation. Professor Ferguson's late brothers, Albert and Henry were both ministers. Rev. Henry Ferguson lost his life at the hands of Chinese bandits after he had labored as a missionary there for over 30 years.

Thanks For Paper

One of the largest paper collections ever made by King scouts and lions was completed last Saturday, and thanks to everyone. The neatly tied bundles facilitated the work of handling and saved time. The boys wroked from 9 until 12.30 noon, covering a wide district in and outside of the village. Paper will be trucked to Toronto this week. Small trucks for the canvass were loaned by John Dew, Eaton Hall Farm, W. F. Poag and Sir Ellsworth Flavelle.

Street Names Posted

An improvement in King City is the street names which are bracketed on standards. They are done in black and white and can be readily seen by the motorist or pedestrian. They were posted a week ago and all are done with the exception of the main intersection at Keele and King Sts. and Station Road, to be done this week. Named are Patton, William and Dew, Patton, Fisher, Doctors Lane, Hoop and Dennison Rd.

Revision Court Nov. 3

The court of revision on assessments for the township of King will be heard at the municipal office at Nobleton, on Monday, Nov. 2 at 2 o'clock.

Legion Building

Work on the new club rooms of King Legion is being rushed along with a view of making it habitable for winter use. It is expected a hydro pole will be installed to carry a temporary service in order to use a power saw.

UN Day at King School

The senior room of King school observed United Nations Day on Oct. 24 by studying the life of Lester Peason, president of the UN, stressing the fact that "Canadians should be proud that one of their countrymen has received the high appointment."

Guided by the teacher, Miss Eva Dennis, the children wrote a story on Mr. Pearson's background and his rise to prominence. The children talked briefly on what they understand as the mission of the UN., to establish peace, law and order in the world, to work out equal rights for everyone.

Polio Victim

Mary Chamberlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chamberlain, 10th line, King township, died last week at the age of 22, in the Riverdale Isolation hospital, Toronto.

She had been a patient for nearly five years. Mary was stricken with polio and was in an iron lung for a long time and at intervals during her stay in hospital. She was paralyzed but her cheerful disposition endeared her to the doctors and nurses.

The funeral serivce was held on Friday from her parents' home with interment in Laurel Hill cemetery at Bolton. Rev. Allen Farris, professor of Knox College and Rev. Dr. John Ross, Woodbridge, officiated. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Mary is survived by her parents, two sisters, Mrs. Pearl McTaggart, Nobleton, Mrs. Noreen Kersey, Kleinburg. Brothers are Austin, Nobleton, Joe at home and George of Woodbridge. She was a niece of Mrs. Herb Ross, King City.

Robert John Carson

Mr. William A. Carson of King, Ernest Carson, Maple, Edward of Aurora, and Mrs. Pearl Avery of Edgeley were bereaved in the death of their brother, Robert John Carson, 80, Jefferson, who passed away, October 16, after an illness of two years. The funeral service was held on October 19 from Richmond Hill funeral home with interment in Maple cemetery. The deceased was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carson, Vaughan township where he had spent his life, and farmed until retirement. Surviving are his wife, the former Alice Neal, and a daughter, Mrs. Henry McDonald (Velma), Islington.

Car Badly Damaged

A car belonging to Mr. Harvey Folliott received a badly left rear fender, damage to the door and cut tire last Friday evening, near the King sideroad railway track. It was hit by a car belonging to Eldon Wade of Maple, which was being shoved backward out of a hole on the roadside near the track.

The Folliott car was moving slowly at the time and got the full impact of the rear bumper of the Wade vehicle. Damage is estimated at $135. Ronald and Carol Parker received bumps on their heads while riding in the rear of Mr. Folliott's car.

Bruce Hall, realtor and insurance representative, is in York County hospital, Newmarket, with injuries from a highway traffic accident. He was the second King man last week to be in a Yonge St. accident, having to go to hospital at Newmarket.

Mr. Hall has seven fractured ribs and three broken at both ends. By Sunday he had developed pleurisy. The accident occurred at the first stop south of Thornhill, last Friday evening while the Hall car was proceeding south. A truck travelling north on Yonge St. made a left hand turn in front of him, giving him no chance to avoid collision. The Hall car was damaged to the extent of about $650 but the truck was little damaged nor were the occupants.

Fashion Show

A precedent was set at King City when a fashion show by a number of Newmarket merchants was sponsored by King City W.I. in McDonald and Wells' hall, Oct. 22, giving the Institute a profit of $50.

The models were selected by the W.I. with the exception of two young men from Newmarket, who showed Morrison's clothing. The local personnel was arranged by Mrs. Gordon Wells. Mrs. A. E. Jarvis, W.I. president, was chairman. The stage scene was attractive with Senecal drapes forming a colorful background for the parade ramp.

The show displayed the newest materials and styling, in practical but attractive costumes for the ladies, teen-agers, young boys and girls down to the three-year olds. The models were delighted with their various outfits which they showed to good advantage. There were 23 who made 68 appearances. The children, of course, stole the show, everyone lovely in attire from jeans to party dresses. Like the ladies and young women, the girls had special hair stylings by the Tobey twins.

Little Barbara Rawlings was so pleased with herself in a red snowsuit with white fur trim, she paused for a while to take in the audience, with smile after smile. Ginny Hood loved the parade and everybody there. Little Bob Campbell, in small boy togs, did well up to one point when he suddenly decided the show was worth at least a tear or two. The Scott twins, Lee and Lynn, in pretty red velvet, had their steps and turns well practiced. In fact all the children were happy and proud in costumes from Jack and Jill Shoppe.

Mrs. Arnold Peter, Mrs. Ivan Specht, Mrs. Burwell Jackson and Mrs. Howard Neill wore interesting outfits. Freda Dent, Shirley Rawlings, Mary Jane Walker and Norma Wells were lovely models. These two sections modelled Dawson ensembles and wore beautiful costume jewellery from Yates'. One of the outfits that interested the little boy spectators was a man's colorful hunting outfit and rifle.

Other children in the show were Paul Wotherspoon, Jimmie Billings, Mary Carol Wotherspoon, Donna Bowen, Carolyn Parker, Carolyn Shropshire, Barbara Billings, June Brown. All music was supplied by Bert Budd.

After the program was completed, the visiting group and their friends were served tea and cookies by the W.I. at the home of Mrs. McDonald.

...ham Family

There have been Gillhams on the farm land of lots 16 and 17, the rear of the fifth concession at the 6th line and the Gillham sideroad, for nearly 100 years. When Mr. Lewis Gillham leaves the old homestead, the old connection will be broken when Toronto families take over 150 acres of the 200-acre property.

Mr. Royston Stubbs, Leaside, has purchased the dwelling and 50 acres and Mr. Roy Sherk has bought 100 acres to the north. There still remains 50 acres on the south side of the sideroad which is not yet sold. Mr. and Mrs. Gillham have bought a house in Aurora on Wells St. Their daughter, Hazel, who with her husband, Frank Robertson and their four children are living in part of the large house they have bought on Machell St., Aurora.

Mr. Roy Sherk has taken the north 100 acres but the south 50 has not yet been sold. The location of this almost pioneer land at the height of the Ridges is picturesque. Fifty acres of forest on the 150 acre-site has oak, birch and mixed kinds of trees, of old growth.

With the removal of the Gillham family from Strange district, goes a connection that dates back nearly 100 years, when George Gillham and his wife bought from William Wells. They lived in a log house back of the present site and here were raised their five sons and four daughters. The parents have been dead many years and their children, Dave, Taylor, William, Mark, Mrs. Emma Porter and Mrs. Sarah Gould, have passed away. Remaining are Lewis, who is 82, and his sister, Mrs. Sophia Johnston of Lemonville.

The home has been the scene of many family and neighboring gatherings. "Since I came here it was nothing to have 18 sit down to meals on Sunday," said Mrs. Gillham. There are 13 grandchildren so there is still plenty of stir in this hospitable home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillham earn a well deserved rest which their retirement should give them, but their old friends will miss them as good neighbors and reliable friends. Their auction sale will be held on Nov. 1.

Teston 80th Anniversary

On the occasion of the 80th anniversary of Teston United church, Nov. 9, Rev. Douglas Davis, Stouffville, a former minister, will be the guest preacher. Teston choir and Mr. Victor White, soloist of Knox Presbyterian church, Toronto, will provide the music. At 7.30 in the evening, Rev. Charles Murray, minister of Leaside United church, will preach and Woodbridge United church choir will sing.

Mrs. William Peterman, who will be 87 in December, is the oldest member of the congregation. Refreshments will be served by the W.A. after the morning service in the church basement for all who care to remain.

Four Baptisms

Rev. M. R. Jenkinson, King, was officiating minister when four children were baptised at the morning service at Teston United church on Oct. 26. They were Carol Ann Rumble, 4½ years, and her brother, Murray Dennis Rumble, 1¼ years, the children of Mr. and Mrs. John Rumble of Teston; Kenneth Glenn Murray, aged 1 year, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Murray, Teston, and Peggy Lenore Murray, six months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Murray, New Lowell.

At King City United church on Sunday evening the fireside monthly gathering was held with a large attendance. Mr. Harold Ratcliffe showed his beautiful pictures of Eastern Canada and the coastal American States.

Commends Lions Club

District Governor M. Bud Renner, Toronto, was the guest speaker at a dinner meeting of King City Lions on Oct. 21, held in the parish rooms of All Saints' Anglican church. He spoke on the value of Lionism, enlarging on the international scope.

Lion Renner praised the local club for the work it has done in the short time since inception.

The district governor was introduced by Lion B. J. Langdon, first vice-president, and afterward was presented with a crystal relish dish by J. W. Parsons, Lion tamer.

Lion Gordon Wells thanked Mr. Renner for his presence and inspiring thoughts. Mr. Bill Boucher, tenor soloist from Toronto, was guest artist.

Mr. Bert Hutchinson, Saskatchewan, arrived at Eversley last week for a visit with his cousins, Mrs. Elizabeth Folliott, Jas. Tawse, Mrs. Mina Bridgeman and Mrs. W. Shropshire. He flew to Malton, where he bought a new car, motored to Eversley where he is making headquarters at the Tawse home. He was raised at Eversley on the Hutchinson homestead.

Mrs. Leonard Shropshire visited her husband in hospital at Newmarket after his accident last week. Leonard is to arrive home this week and will be able to walk with crutches. His right leg is in a cast.

Wallace Sinclair, Toronto, a brother of Mrs. T. L. Williams, was recently operated on and is reported doing well.

Adults and children of S. S. 2, King City, will have an opportunity to enjoy the annual Hallowe'en party for the community in McDonald and Wells' hall on Friday, Oct. 31. There will be costume prizes, treats and an entertainment by a magician-ventriloquist. An admission fee of 50 cents for adults will defray expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lloyd have settled in their home at Oak Ridges, the former Gemmill property.

A dance, organized by young people, at Sacred Heart school auditorium last Friday night, was attended by 50. The children were shown how to do square dances by the older ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bales, King Ridge, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Magee, at their Tottenham farm on Sunday.

Frank Deane, R.C.A.F., Montreal, paid a weekend visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Deane, King Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Folliott had their daughter, Mrs. Mae MacMurchy, and her husband, Donald, and their children, Bobby, Mary and Charlie, Hillsburg, at their home on Sunday.

Thirty-four Masons of the Robertson Lodge, A.F. and A.M. held their annual parade to All Saints' Anglican church last Sunday morning.

Mrs. Roy Minton is slowly recovering from an attack of pleurisy which kept her in bed for three weeks after she was ill with the flu. During her sickness, her father, Wm. Young, Toronto, stayed with her for two weeks, looking after her while Mr. Minton kept on with his work at Brampton Creamery.

Mrs. Albert Jones, Eversley, is back from Newmarket hospital but is still in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hunter, King City, and Mr. Hunter's mother, Mrs. John Wilkinson, Willowdale, attended the funeral of William Haystead, Rosseau Road, near Parry Sound, on Oct. 21.

A ten-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bunn of King City on Oct. 11, at Newmarket hospital.

A good congregation attended Eversley church on Sunday morning when Reformation Sunday was observed. The Sunday school scholars remained for the service. Announcement was made of anniversary services at the Ninth Line church on Sunday, Nov. 9. The W. A. will be held on Nov. 5, at the home of Mrs. Frank Armstrong, 3rd line.

Copies of the new Revised Standard Version of the Bible are being purchased by members of Eversley congregation or others who may wish them. Fifteen percent of the cost of the Bibles sold reverts to the church.

New Post Office

The new post office at King City is taking on the appearance of a building. The facing is about finished. Fine weather has been helpful. When the building is finished by the contractors, the postal department steps in to install the fittings and furnishings.

SAY FAREWELL

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. C. White held a surprise party at her home on October 8. During the evening Mrs. White was given a beautiful trilight lamp and a silk cushion.

The children were given money and a gift was sent to Mr. C. White.

A dainty lunch was served and everyone wished them a successful future and a safe trip.
